Spend half of profits to fight arsenic
Speakers urge beverage cos at a seminar in city

BSS, Dhaka

Speakers at a seminar yesterday urged multinational beverage companies in the country to spend at least half of their annual profits to fight the arsenic contamination.

"These companies earn millions of dollars selling just water mixing some sugar and colour with soda. Why will they not do something for the victims of arsenic contamination?", they asked.

The speakers, mostly leaders of women's bodies, also said the UNICEF, which motivated people to sink tubewells for safe drinking water during the last three decades, should take the key responsibility to help the affected millions to get rid of the curse.

Project Five-O, Bangladesh organised the seminar on "The Effects of Arsenic Contamination on Women and Children" at Dhaka Business and Professional Women's Club auditorium here in observance of its 10th founding anniversary.

International Coordinator of Project Five-O Johanne Margaret Sorensen spoke at the seminar as chief guest, while Team Leader of arsenic, water and sanitation unit of UNICEF in Dhaka Shafiqul Islam presented the keynote paper on the topic.

Former minister Noor Uddin

Khan, Five-O Bangladesh executives Tamará R Ali, Nazma Akbar, Rowshan Ara, Prof. Latifa Akund, Prof. Jahan Ara Huq, Prof. Najma Siddiqi, Rasheda Akhter, Munira Khan, Dr Latifa Binte Lutfar, Zeenat Ara Bhuiyan spoke at the seminar, chaired by Chairman Nargis Khan.

An arsenic affected woman especially an arsenicosis girl patient has to face painful situation in her life as nobody wants to marry her. She also face isolation due to ignorance, Prof. Jahanara Huq said, adding that arsenic is creating trouble in family life leading to even divorce. Women arsenicosis patients become subject to torture and at times they lost job, she said.

The discussants urged the government to make a policy on arsenic problem and said a concerted effort is a must to address the problem properly.

Project Five-O is an international service organisation formed by the combination of five international women organisations. These are: Soroptimist International, Zonta International, Federation of University Women (FUW), Federation of Business and Professional Women (FBPW) and International Council of Women (ICW).

The Plain, SHORT STORY of Good advertising

There is a small group of advertising people in Bangladesh, who make advertising not only as a business but also for the continuing satisfaction of pushing good products past all competition.

This small group of men have no interest at all in either comfortable small businesses or questionable big ones.

It's members pride themselves on accomplishment but they have no truck with even the slightest exaggeration or deception.

They believe in the good judgment of the average adult Bangladeshi and they make advertising to excite this good judgment and to satisfy.

They are pleasantly persistent but never offensive. They are imaginative but never misleading. And finally, because of these qualities they are convincing.

More than 5 products advertised by this agency are now the market leader in their competitive sales position.

Proud to be associated with few of the leading multinational and national companies.
