AZIZ AMIRUL

ZUNABUL Islam's second posthumous solo exhibition, featuring watercolor works of the artist, starts from today at Zainul Gallery of the Institute of Fine Arts in the city. Rokeya Islam, wife of the late artist, hosts the exhibition.

Zunabul Islam received training in art at the Fine Arts Institute established by his elder brother and one of the greatest Bengali artists late Zainul Abedin. Passing out from the art college in 1954, Zunabul entered the profession of art teaching at art institutions of different districts of the country. In 1968, he joined as a Professor at the Institute of Fine Arts and retired as the Head of the same Institute in 1995.

Special courses on batik was introduced at the Fine Art Institute through the efforts of Zunabul Islam who had completed graduation course on batik art from England.

Besides being a batik art, Zunabul carried on his brush in watercolor, oil on canvas, and drawing. He had the distinction of receiving tutelage from a number of famous art instructors including Zainul Abedin and Qamrul Hasan.

In watercolor, Zunabul's favorite subject was scenic landscape of rural Bengal including images of boat, thatched huts and open grass-land. His subjects in watercolor painting also included images of human, animal, bird, reptile and insect.

Most of the works to be displayed at the exhibition contain themes on nature, bird and general lifestyle of the rural community. The artist had a strong sense of intricacy in choosing shades of color while he depicted the natural scenes of Bengal.

Work like 'Fish' reveal the painters' caring notion and awareness about maintaining a clean, pollution-free river system across the country where the residents would suffer the least.

Use of deep shades could be found in many of the works where the artist had managed to bring out important elements of realistic and figurative art.

Following the steps of his elder brother, Zunabul Islam used ingredients of wax in place of the usual 'wash process' while doing his works. The results were highly successful.

Bangladesh Shilpakala Academy held an exhibition with the works of Zunabul Islam in 1998, a year after the death of this painting maestro that was first posthumous solo exhibition of Zunabul Islam.

The current exhibition that features some top class works in watercolor by Zunabul proves the artist's high expertise in this field besides his towering capacity in works of boutique.

In his lifetime, artist Zunabul Islam had hosted 5 solo exhibitions of his works besides participating in 17 group shows in and outside Bangladesh, including five Asian Art biennales, since the mid-60's.

Professor Anwarullah

Chowdhury, Vice Chancellor of Dhaka University, will inaugurate the exhibition at 10:30 this morning at the venue. Begum Jahanara Abedin, widow of late Zainul Abedin, and eminent artists Abdur Razzaque, Rafiqunnabi, Abdus Shakoor and Abdus Satter will be present at the occasion as special guests.

The exhibition will remain open till April 28 from 2 p.m. to 8 p.m. everyday.
