Attack on police

One arrested in Sylhet

STAFF CORRESPONDENT, Sylhet

Police arrested one person yesterday on suspicion of involvement in the attack on a police officer who was stabbed in his hands by a gang of miscreants on Saturday evening.

The gang swooped on a police team and snatched away two phensidyl sellers the team arrested from Salutikar Bazaar under Gowainghat upazila. A case has been lodged against eight people in this connection, Additional SP of Sylhet said.

Police Inspector Khurshid Alam, also the OC of Gowainghat thana, accompanied by a police team, was returning to the thana from the Sunamganj district headquarters on Saturday evening. On the way, they arrested two people from Salutikar bazaar.

But the accomplices of the arrested made the attack on the police and snatched away two arrested persons. At one stage, the miscreants stabbed on the right hand of the police Inspector.

The Bangladesh Awami Sechchhasebak League took to the street in the city yesterday demanding immediate release of its leader Nirmal Goswami.
