

Ganojyoti murder Nipu Rani freed on bail

STAFF CORRESPONDENT, CG

Nipu Rani Barua, 32, arrested in connection with the sensational Raizan Buddha monk Ganojyoti Mohasthor murder, was released on bail in the city on Saturday.

The District and Sessions Judge's Court of Ali Ashraf Khan Lodi granted the bail to Nipu Barua.

While granting bail, the court said there was no specific charge against Nipu and she even was not an accused in the case either.

Moreover, she has a kid and the murdered monk had no other close female relative to perform the rites for salvation of the departed soul, were also considered for the bail, the court added.

Nipu, wife of Ganojyoti's brother and the plaintiff of the case Sulal Barua, was arrested on April 22.

The arrest of Nipu on the next day in the murder case triggered a strong resentment among the Buddhist community. They were demanding release of Nipu Rani.

Ganojyoti Mohasthor was murdered at Raizan Woara Puvan Buddha Bihar -- a Buddhist temple-cum-orphanage.

Nipu's two and half years old daughter Oyishi Barua and husband Sulal Barua were present during the hearing.
