Rarely Heard Ragas

Pandit Jasraj, Price: Tk 500 The album features ragas Purba and Patdipaki. The name Purba suggests similarities structural echos, which connect this raga to two better known ragas: Purvi and Purba Basant, the eastern form of Basant. Patdipaki, on the other hand, has like Purba carved a space for itself out of different ragas. But it has a kind of complexity which is different from that of Purba. The structure of this raga may be understood as weave or intertexuring of two different scales or haats. These can be clearly distinguished from each other. The main structure is in Bilaval thaat.

New Books RABINDRA RACHNAVAL

Selected Poems-1

Rabindranath Tagore, Price: Tk.129.00 The poems selected in this volume give us the essence of the magic of Tagore's poetry. Translated by the poet himself, they recreate a romantic vision of the divine Truth. They intricately weave the sacred with the secular. Some are tales in verse with a rare delicacy of feelings. Some are dreamy and symbolic of the poet's mood. The recurring images - the crossing of the river, the call of the boatman, a singing mendicant, dark clouds gathering in the sky, the lover waiting for the beloved - spring from familiar situations and attain cosmic dimensions. Many of these poems are about love. Some are strikingly different in their robustness of form and rhythm and reflect

Stray Birds

Rabindranath Tagore, Price: Tk. 129.00 A cherished renaissance figure Rabindranath Tagore (1861-1941) put South Asia on the literary map of the world when his Gitanjali was awarded the Nobel prize for literature in 1913. Myriad-minded, like Shakespeare, he was a poet, short story writer, novelist, dramatist, essayist, painter and composer of songs. His world-wide acclaim as a social, political, religious and aesthetic thinker, innovator in education and a champion of the 'One World' idea makes him a living presence

First published in 1916, Stray Birds consists of epigrams and short verses and translations of the epigrammatic verses of Kanika (Fragments) and Lekhan (autographs in verse). A large number of these verses were originally written in English during his stay in Japan. The brevity, economy and intensity of these verses are striking and the combination of wit and wisdom has a magical lilt.

Discovery of Bangladesh

Exploration into Dynamics of a Hidden Nation, Akbar Ali Khan, Price: Tk 220.00 Bangladesh is the last major nation-state to proclaim its identity. Here is a nation that changed its statehood twice in less than twenty-five years. The twists and turns of her recent history baffle the historians. This study explores the historical roots of this apparently enigmatic nation. Methodologically, it breaks new ground in Bangladesh studies in two ways. First, it makes explicit the underlying theories in the historical framework to explain the historical evaluation of this hidden nation. Secondly, it explores the micro foundations of social and political institutions in this region. Starting with an analysis of micro institutions at the grass-roots level, this study examines the determinants of the structure of rural settlements in Bangladesh and suggests that the lack of corporateness of rural settlements contributed to political fragmentation, instability and factionalism in this region.

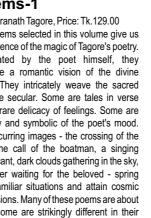

JOURNEY WITHIN ISLAM

In this book the author tries to portray Islam as a religion of all the Prophets and a personal religion true to the nature of the mankind. The author also defines Islamic Society dispelling the notion that it was a closed society. His principal source is the Qur-an which to him is the textbook of Islam. His only other source of reference are the examples from the life led by the Prophet of Islam as depicted in different literature on Islam. The author asserts that Islam awakens in men and women the faculty of reason and exhorts them to use their intellect. He presents the facts and events in Islamic nistory by illustrating and creating images for the reader as if in a journey through history. Perhaps a similar journey evoked the following comment by the German playwright Goethe "If this be Islam, do we not all live in
