Recruitment test for pry teachers 34 fake examinees arrested

UNB, Dhaka

Thirty-four fake examinees were arrested from nine districts yesterday during the countrywide recruitment test for assistant teachers for the government primary schools.

UNB correspondents reported arrest of 11 people from Chittagong, six from Narail, four each from Bogra and Jhenidah, three from Khulna and two each from Barisal, Brahmanbaria and Thakurgaon.

They were arrested for appearing in the examinations for other examinees changing photographs in the admit cards and for changing answer scripts.

Those arrested in Chittagong were: Akhter Hossain, Abdur Razak, Osman Goni, Mohammad Ali, Ziaul Huq, Enamul Huq, Saifuddin, Iqbalur Rahman, Mamunur Rashid, Monirul Islam and Mohammad Nasiruddin.

The arrested in Narail were identified as Syeda Reshma Khanom, Ummei Rumana, Meherunahar, Utpal Kumar Das, Anis Hossain and Liza Mandol while the arrested from Bogra were Shamira Siddiqua, Jakir, Selina and Shirin.

Dhaka elected member of UN commission of science & tech

BSS, New York

Bangladesh has been elected a member of the UN Commission of Science and Technology for Development for a four-year tenure beginning January 2003.

The commission is mandated to conduct deliberations on topical issues of science and technology during its yearly sessions and develop specific recommendations for adoption by the Economic and Social Council of the United Nations.

Dr Iftekhar Chowdhury, the Permanent Representative and Ambassador of Bangladesh to the United Nations, said here that this election underscored Bangladesh's interest in playing a key role in pressing into service the opportunities provided by the new information technology for the developing countries.

Abducted man rescued

UNB, Barisal

A man who was abducted from Madaripur and thrown into the Kironkhola river in Barisal was rescued on Wednesday.

Sources said some miscreants abducted Al Amin Matabbar, 34, a worker of Mustafapur Textile Mill, when he reached near his working place on Tuesday night. They took him to Barisal in a microbus and threw him into the river binding his hands and legs with a rope.

Later, he was rescued in an unconscious state from the river.

'Community police to be deployed to improve law & order in Ctg'

STAFF CORRESPONDENT, Ctg

Commissioner of Chittagong Metropolitan Police (CMP) Shahidullah Khan has said community police will be deployed in a bid to improve law and order in the port city.

He was speaking as chief guest at the concluding ceremony of an inter-class debate competition held at Saint Scholastica's Girls' High School auditorium yesterday. Dristi, a local socio-cultural organisation, arranged the competition.

Cicilia Francis, headmistress of the school, presided over the function. Karam Ali, vice chairman of the school managing committee, Jereme Rinahe Gomez, a priest of the local church, Nurul Alam, Chittagong Bureau chief of The Daily Star and Bridget Dias, president of Dristi, spoke on the occasion.

The CMP commissioner said all possible measures have already been taken to curb crimes in Chittagong.

The CMP commissioner also stressed the need for similar curriculum for both English medium and Bengali medium schools in the country to maintain a common standard of education.

Later, he distributed prizes among the winners of the debate competition.
