Flowery tributes showered

Bangladesh Shilpakala Academy observers birth anniversary of artist Shafiuddin

TAWFIQUE ALI

AINTERS, art critics, artists of different media, art enthusiasts, fans and admirers rejoiced an evening stewed with floral offerings and showered their revered tributes to Shafiuddin Ahmed, one of elderly pioneers of fine arts in the country, on his 80th birth anniversary June 23. Bangladesh Shilpakala Academy arranged the occasion at its newly built National Art Gallery plaza.

Noted painter Mohammad Kibria presided over the function while well acclaimed painters and distinguished personality like Rafiqun Nabi, Abu Taher, Qaiyyum Chowdhury, Hashem Khan Sculptors Hamiduzzaman and Ferdousi Priobhashini, Dr. Siraiul Islam Chowdhurv. Prof. Monjurul Islam and Mustafa

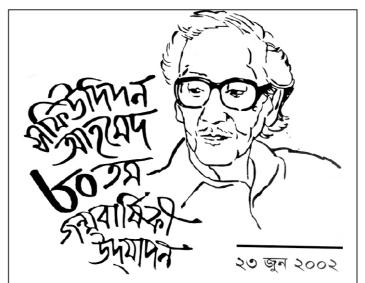

Zaman Abbasi among others, attend the function to pay their respect and admiration to this master painter.

In this joyous programme several cultural organisations, institutions, accomplished personalities and the painter's admirers offered him their hearty love and honour.

Nearly for last six decades Shafiuddin Ahmed has enriched the country's fine arts world by dint of his self-devoted and devout endeavour with art achieving excellence in the area. A venerable print maker, Shafiuddin has not only inspired a good many art learners through his intent endeavour in practising fine arts but has also enlightened our art world with abundance and splendour of his group of artistes of the Academy rendered an inaugural recital "Aananda Lokey, Mongal Aalokey Birajo, Sattya Sundaro....." as an offering to whom the programme was all about. In his welcome address Mustafa Zaman Abbasi was passionately so exultant that he performed a birthday song "Shubha Janmadin" pouring out his love, honour and greetings to his painter friend. He complimented him saying, "Today's sun has risen only in honour of Shafiuddin. We are delighted, proud, vibrated and thrilled today". It was really a rare moment to Abdus Sattar paid tributes on behalf of the Fine Arts Institute. Students of Print making dept. adorned their guru with a floral crown that prompted the audience to be jubilant in joy. To greet Shafiuddin, Rafigunnabi represented Bangladesh Charukala Sangsad while Abu Taher came up on behalf of Dhaka Art Circle Artist Quium Chowdhury, Hashem Khan, along with their wives, Prof. Bulban Osman and Syed Monjurul Islam followed by turn in the queue. The birthday reception was later marked by reading out a note of reverence. The reader, who regretted his dropout from the Art College in his youth, read out the note with a good grace forgetting his repentance.

In the note Shafiuddin has been termed as "one of the purest painters who has made a supreme dedication with single mindedness to achieve accomplishment."

Dr. Sirajul Islam Chowdhury handed out an honourary crest to the artist Shafiuddin on behalf of Shilpakala Academy.

He, in his complimentary note, said, "Shafiuddin Ahmed is an eminent embodiment of how fine arts may make a man refined, cultivated, virtuous, meek, humble and reverential. And how fine arts can purge one's graceful sensibility of selfconceit and egoism."

Abdus Sattar termed him as an accomplished artist who "Paves the path in time of distress." Mohammad Kibria rounded up the reception ceremony with a complimentary note saying "Shafiuddin is a devout artist whom several generations of artists of the Art College woe to."

A musical recital by noted artists of the country followed in second chapter of the
