Ahad Chowdhury refutes allegation

UNB, Dhaka

Former chairman of Bangladesh Muktijoddha Sangsad central command council Abdul Ahad Chowdhury has refuted allegation of fund embezzlement against him, saying that it was a conspiracy to tarnish his image.

against it, he said there was no irregularity or misappropriation of fund during his regime. If there is any irregularity, the audit firms could find it out, he told a press conference yesterday.

His reply came two days after State Minister for Liberation War Affairs Redwan Ahmed, who took over as Chairman of the Sangsad eight months back replacing Ahad, made allegations of misappropriation of fund against his prede-

Addressing the press conference at the Jatiya Press Club, Ahad Chowdhury reiterated his allegation that Redwan Ahmed forcibly grabbed the chairmanship of the highest body of the welfare organisation of country's freedom fight-

He said Redwan Admed, following a court order restricting his activities in the Muktijoddha Sangsad, hatched a conspiracy and brought the charge of misappropriation against him which is totally "false and fabricated". "If the allegation is true, why he didn't raise it in last eight Threatening to file a case months?" asked Chowdhury who was ousted from the office of the
