Joygun Bibi - another victim of fatwa

UNB, Sirajganj

Police filed a case and arrested a village leader on Saturday for meting out punishment of 80 lashes to a rape victim by invoking 'fatwa' (religious edict) at an arbitration.

Osman, a former union parishad (UP) member, was taken to custody while two other accused Maulana Abdul Mannan and Abdus Sabur Azad went into hiding.

The arbitration at Chak Govindapur village in Salanga thana on June 17, presided over by Sakawat Hossain, awarded 80 lashes to rape victim Joygun Bibi, 20, and 80 lashes and fine of Tk 10,000 to rapist Hafizur Rahman. The verdict was executed the following day.

Police became active and filed the case after reports published in the newspapers.

Earlier, police allegedly refused to register case or take any action against the culprits when Joygun's father, Sirajul Islam, went to Salanga thana on June 7.

Poor Sirajul of village Hatapara said her daughter would not have undergone the punishment had police taken the case earlier and acted against the culprit, villagers said.

Joygun was married two years back to Akbar Ali of neighbouring Chak Govindapur. Akbar was thrown into jail hajot in a case a year ago. Since then Joygun has been living in her parents' house.

At dead of night on June 4 Hafizur and his accomplices abducted Joygun, took her to village Binde in Tarash upazila and confined her to a house. There, Hafizur raped her repeatedly for 12 days. Her father wanted to file a case, but for reasons unknown police refused to accept the case, sources said.

On June 16, relatives of Hafizur brought him and Joygun to Chak Govindapur and convened arbitration the following day. Maulana Abdul Mannan and the village elders awarded equal punishment of lashes to the abductor-rapist and the rape victim that angered many in the village.

Police said they are hopeful of arresting the other accused. They are asking why Salanga thana refused to register the case Joygun's father wanted to file there.
