Fast food shop of int'l standards opens in city

Best Fried Chicken (BFC), a local chain fast food shop of an international standard, opened its first outlet at Uttara Model Town in the city yesterday.

The Sinha Agro-based Industries Group introduced the BFC fast food chain shop whose next two outlets will be opened at Dhanmondi and Gulshan soon.

Hafiz G A Siddiqui, vice-chancellor of North South University formally opened the shop at a simple ceremony which was addressed by former president of BGMEA and chairman of Opey Group Anisur Rahman Sinha and former minister Fakhru Islam Munshi.

Speaking on the occasion, Siddiqui said fast food has become essential in our society because of changes in our life style. It is no more a fashion, rather a need of our society, he added.

Siddiqui said both husband and wife of many families in our society now a days go for work and none of them have time to spend for cooking.

He thanked the Sinha Group for introducing the shop and said it would have a positive impact on our agrarian country where the majority of the people are engaged in activities related to agriculture.

The owners of BFC said they were planning to raise the chickens in their own farms or collect them from the growers on contract basis.

Under the contract system, a guaranteed market will be ensured for thousands of farmers for their birds, they added.

The owners said the chickens would also be processed under hygienic and halal method.

Justice K M Sobhan addressing the commemorative meeting on Dr Neelima Ibrahim at the Jatiya Press Club in the city yesterday.

Rich tributes paid to Dr Neelima Ibrahim

Intellectuals, writers, journalists and cultural activists at a commemorative meeting in the city yesterday paid rich tributes to noted writer and teacher of Dhaka University Dr Neelima Ibrahim.

The meeting, organised by Bangabandhu Shishu Kishore Mela, was held at the National Press Club.

Speakers at the meeting said the country lost a great personality like Dr Neelima Ibrahim at a time when she was needed most.

They recollected her contributions to all progressive movements and said she was an inspiration for all.

"As a founder advisor of Bangabandhu Shishu Kishore Mela, Dr Neelima Ibrahim put forward a proposal for National Children Day to be observed on the birthday of Bangabandhu Sheikh Mujibur Rahman," said Shirin Akhter Monju, general secretary of the organisation adding that she always worked to inspire the students to the spirit of the liberation war.

Tridib Dastider in his speech remembered her tremendous contribution for the wellbeing of women who were violated during the war of Liberation. She was the right successor of other great women like Begum Rokeya and Sufia Kamal.

"Dr Neelima Ibrahim worked not only for the women but also for the whole nation," said Dr Durgadas Bhattacharya.

Justice K M Sobhan urged the city mayor to rename the Pioneer Road where Dr Neelima Ibrahim resided as 'Neelima Ibrahim Sarak' to show respect to her.

Presided over by Mia Mansaf, president of Bangabandhu Shishu Kishore Mela, the meeting was addressed by Santosh Gupta, Mahubuddin Ahmed, Kubari Sarwar, Md Jahirul Haque and Biman Bhattacharya.

A new anti-drug organisation styled as 'Madak Mukta Parishad' was floated at the city's Moham-madpur area yesterday.

A 51-member convening committee has been formed with Afzalul Haque and freedom fighter Zahiruddin Jalal as convener and member-secretary respectively, said a press release.

The committee was formed at a meeting here yesterday with ward commissioner KM Ahmed Razu in the chair.

Int'l Cooperative Day today

International Cooperative Day will be observed in the country as elsewhere in the world today.

The theme of the day this year is: Society and Cooperative: Concerned for Community.

LGRD and Cooperatives Ministry has chalked out elaborate programmes to mark the day.

The day's programme will begin with a colourful rally from Paltan Maidan at 8am. LGRD and Cooperatives Minister Abdul Mannan Bhuiyan will lead the rally.

A discussion meeting will also be held at Osmani Memorial Hall.

Acting President Barrister Muhammad Jamiruddin Sircar and Prime Minister Khaleda Zia gave separate messages for making all the programmes of the day a success.

The acting President in his message said the role of cooperative is very important in poverty alleviation, creating of self-employment and development of rural economy.

Prime Minister Khaleda Zia in her message said it is possible to achieve the desired social target by turning the cooperative into a movement.
