Retired Armed Forces officers' ladies have formed an association to enable them to contribute their experiences and talents towards nation building and to fulfil their aspirations in various fields.

The association, styled as Retired Armed Forces Officers' Ladies Association (RAFOLA), was recently registered with the Social Welfare Department, a press release said.

The association aims to bring ladies of this group from all over Bangladesh together under one banner to give them a chance to interact socially while contributing to the country.

A seventeen-member executive committee of the association was elected recently with two advisers. They are: Begum Khaja Wahida Wasiuddin -- Adviser, Begum Rawshan Ershad MP -- Adviser, Begum Kohinoor Dastgir -- Chairperson, Begum Sayeeda Shafiulla · Vice chairperson, Begum Sufia Ahmed -- Vice chairperson, Begum Abeda Muzammel -- Vice chairperson, Begum Hasina Samad -- Vice chairperson, Begum Nahid Hannan -- Vice chairperson, Begum Najma Shafique Vice chairperson, Begum Shamim Munir -- Secretary, Begum Helen Quader -- Joint Secretary, Begum Jahan Ara Mahmud -- Treasurer Begum Shahana Wali -- Joint Treasurer, and Members -- Begum Zebunnessa Ali, Begum Nazera Alam, Begum Bilquis Ramzan, Begum Helen Quader and Begum Masuda Rahman.

RAFOLA formed Exporters' strike on at Sona Masjid LC station

BSS, Dhaka

The deadlock created at the Sona Masjid Land Customs (LC) station following the strike for indefinite period by the Importers Association was still continuing.

The importers stopped using the LC station in Chapainawabganj district since July 6 protesting the observance of holiday on Friday by the clearing and forwarding (C and F) agents.

Meanwhile, customs officials said yesterday they tried to solve the problem but so far could not make any breakthrough due to rigid attitude of the importers and C and F agents.

They said that the government was being deprived of at least Tk 50 lakh in terms of revenue earnings from the station everyday. They said the end of the deadlock totally depended on the importers and C and F agents. "We can just mediate between them if they come forward for negotiated settlement," they said.

Local sources said thousands of labourers and small businessmen at the port are passing their days without any income due to the strike during the last ten days.
