CMCH crippled as JCD runs amok

STAFF CORRESPONDENT, Chittagong

Medical services at the Chittagong Medical College Hospital (CMCH) were as good as non-existent yesterday as unruly activists of the Jatiyatabadi Chhattra Dal (ICD) enforced a shutdown in the morning demanding release offour of their leaders.

The four leaders, including Shahadat Hossain Shaheen, general secretary of the Chittagong Medical College (CMC) chapter of the JCD, the ruling an advertisement for the souvenir the CMC unit of the student body is pub-BNP's student wing, were arrested Monday night and sent to jail yesterday lishing on the occasion of its convocation slated for July 25.

The other three arrested are Mahbubur Rahman Khan, Kazi Omar Faruq and Mamun Alam Khan.

Panchlaish thana police arrested them on charge of exacting illegal toll from the International Institute of Business and Technology (IIBT) Market set up by the Chittagong City Corporation (CCC) at Probortak Morr.

The JCD sources said the activists were arrested under a 'false' charge. They added that the JCD activists went to a shop at the IIBT Market to collect

Filling-station owners yesterday put off their scheduled strike for two months.

The decision came after a meeting between State Minister for Energy AKM Mosharraf Hossain and Bangladesh petroleum dealers, distributors, agents and petrol pump owners, said a statement of the associations.

Presided over by the state minister, the meeting decided that the government would form a committee to withdraw its earlier decision on a commission of Tk 0.08 and Tk 0.04 a litre of petroleum, proposing a logical commission.

The committee will review the operation and evaporation loss, bring changes to the BSTI testing system, tolerance fees and take a decision on the increased tolls for trucks, covered vans and tank lor-
