CPB campaign for reopening of AJM begins today

UNB, Dhaka

The Communist Party of Bangladesh (CPB) will launch countrywide mass campaign week from today to press its demand for reopening of Adamjee Jute Mills.

The party has already begun mass contacts, processions and rallies and distributed booklets in their efforts 'to protect the country's jute industry, jute growers and resources'.

The CBP leaders will start mass contact programme at the party office at 11am today, said a press release. Wayside rallies, processions and mass contacts will also be held in all thanas of the city in the afternoon.

The party will observe the programmes at district and thana levels. It will stage demonstrations in front of the party office at 4pm on July 26, the last day of their programme.

CPB president Manjurul Ahsan Khan and general secretary Mujahidul Islam Selim, in a joint statement, called upon the countrymen to join the movement to 'force' the authorities to reopen the jute

10 arms seized

BSS, Dhaka

Police recovered 10 firearms, 4 other types of weapons and 58 rounds of bullet from their countrywide drives during the last 24 hours ending 6 am yesterday.

They arrested 20 persons in connection with the arms recovery and filed 9 cases under the arms act during the drive, a police headquarters press release said.

Of the firearms, three were recovered by DMP, two by Comilla district police and the rest five by other district units of police.

During the drive, police also recovered 12 explosives from Natore district and filed a case after arresting one person in this connection. Besides, police arrested a total ernment and service-oriented private organisations could solve all the problems gradually. He assured the gathering that the Dhaka City Corporation would start construction and repair of the city roads after the monsoon.

Some of the locals, who addressed the rally, thanked the government for its move to eradicate polythene bag and stop plying of black smoke-emitting motor vehicles in the city. But they expressed concern as both the agents of environmental pollution staged a come back.

They said they would give allout cooperation to the mayor to make the city clean and beautiful. Presided over by Dr Meher-e-

Khoda of THP, the rally was addressed by local Ward Commissioners Ahsanullah Ahsan and Munshi Badiul Haq, BNP leader Ekhlas Uddin-Mollah, and enviconmentalists Dr Badiul Main, Rehama Siddiqui and Rafigul Islam Sarkar. . A on to if en fuelo
