

Separate investigation, law and order units formed in 30 thanas

UNB, Dhaka

Separate investigation and law and order units will be established in all thanas of the country. An official announcement said on Thursday that separate investigation units alongside law and order units of police are being set up "to ensure proper and immediate investigation of criminal cases".

In the first phase, these separate units have been formed in 30 thanas.

The thanas are: Kamrangir Char, Hajariabag and Cantonment in Dhaka Metropolitan area, Keraniganj of Dhaka, Satoria of Manikganj, Pakundia of Kishoreganj, Muktagachha of Mymensingh and Shibchar of Madaripur. Pahartoli and Patenga of Chittagong metropolitan area, Mirersarai of Chittagong, Rangamati Sadar, Chakoria of Cox's Bazar, Raipur of Laxmipur, Chandina of Comilla, Khalispur of Khulna metropolitan area, Dighalia of Khulna, Morel-ganj of Bagerhat, Alamdanga of Kishina, Sharsa of Jessore, Boalia in Rajshahi city, Kamarkhand in Sirajganj, Singra in Natore, Polashbari in Gaibandha, Kahalu in Bogra, Rajnagar and Bianibazar of Sylhet, Dirai of Sunamganj, Bakerganj of Barisal and Mirjaganj of Patuakhali.

"The separate units -- law and order unit and investigation unit -- will have their own manpower and work independently under the supervision of the OC of the respective thana," said the government handout.

Personnel of one unit will not be transferred to the other before three years and DIG or Metropolitan Police Commissioner will be the competent authority for such transfers (after three years).

However, as per the government decision, in case of emergency, the IGP will give inter-unit transfer orders before three years.

The investigation unit may be used for emergency needs, like election, victory day, independence day parade, natural calamity and communal riot.

Incidentally, the government step came in the wake of reports about lapses in recording and investigation of cases that result in delays or deviation in prosecuting the offenders.

Bangabandhu Sangskritik Jote formed a human chain in the city yesterday demanding execution of the verdict in Bangabandhu Murder Case.

9 firearms seized

BSS, Dhaka

Flood water receding in Dhaka, N'ganj

UNB, Dhaka

Despite monsoon is fairly active over the country, the overall flood situation in the country continued to improve further with recession of water levels in the major rivers.

According to a bulletin of Flood Forecasting and Warning Centre (FFWC), the flood situation in the upstream of the Brahmaputra and Ganges basins will continue to improve due to continuous fall of water levels in most of the rivers of these basins.

As the Meghna marked further fall, the flood situation in the districts of Kishoreganj, Narsingdi and Brahmanbaria is likely to improve soon.

Besides, the flood situation around the capital and Narayanganj is likely to further improve as the Turag, Tongi Khal, Buriganga and Lakhya marked further fall.

The flood situation in Sylhet is likely to remain unchanged but the flood situation in Moulvibazar is likely to improve further.

Out of 46 river points, 7 points recorded rise and 33 others marked fall. Besides, rivers were flowing above danger level at 10 points.

The Lakhya at Narayanganj, Turag at Mirpur, Kaliganga at Taraghat, Padma at Bhagyakul, Surma at Kanaighat, Kushiara at Amalshid and Sheola, Manu at Manu railway Bridge and Moulvibazar and the Meghna at Bhatrab Bazar were flowing above the danger levels.

The Brahmaputra, Jamuna and Padma marked further fall at all points while the rivers in Meghna basin registered rise and fall. Besides, almost all the rivers in southeastern hill basin marked fall.

PM to inaugurate Fisheries Fortnight today

UNB, Dhaka

The National Fisheries Fortnight-2002 begins across the country today to create mass awareness about the benefit of fish cultivation and boost fish production.

The slogan of the week this year is "Fish cultivation can eliminate the curse of poverty".

The fortnight programmes include holding discussion, rally, and fish fair and releasing fish fries at different water bodies of the country.

Prime Minister Khaleida Zia is expected to formally inaugurate the fisheries fortnight at Murapara Degree College ground in Roopganj of Narayanganj today.

She will also give away awards among 32 persons and organisations for their outstanding contribution in fisheries sector, and release fish fry in the river Shitalakhya.

Acting President Barrister Muhammad Jamiruddin Sircar and Prime Minister Khaleida Zia gave separate messages on the occasion.

In his message, the acting President said fishery is a very potential sector as it plays a vital role in providing animal protein as well as in the socio-economic development of the country.

"Integrated work plan, direct participation of the common people and utilization of the sustainable technologies can help reach the desired goal in this sector," he said, adding all these will help export the surplus fish and fish products meeting the internal demand.

He also sought planned initiatives to properly utilise the ample opportunities of employment in this sector.
