CPC to be amended

BSS, Dhaka

The Civil Procedure Code (CPC) of the country will be amended within this year and family courts will be established in all districts within next year.

Law, Justice and Parliamentary Affairs Minister Moudud Ahmed said this to journalists yesterday.

On returning home from the USA, the minister, referring to the experiences he gained during his visit to that country, said 'out of court settlements' of financial disputes will be introduced in Bangladesh.

The system will be later introduced in settling the civil disputes, he said.

Moudud said cases involving about Tk 7.50 thousand crore are under trial in the four Artho Rin Adalat in Dhaka and other courts.

He said feuds are being solved through out of court settlements in 15 Family Courts of the country.

Narrating his experience of 'out of court settlement' in the USA, he said a lot of cases are disposed of through mediation, conciliation and arbitration there. The process takes less time in settlement of the feuds, he said.

9 arms seized

BSS, Dhaka

Police seized nine firearms, seven other weapons and 160 bullets from across the country during the last 24 hours ending at 6:00 am yesterday.

They also arrested 1,215 people, including four identified criminals, during the period, a police headquarters press release said.
