

'One dentist for every four lakh in country'

BSS, Dhaka
Chief Whip Khandaker Delwar Hossain said yesterday that the present government would take measures for the development of dentistry as the existing facilities in this branch of the country's health sector were inadequate. He said there was only one skilled and trained dentist for about every four lakh people in the country. There is no health assistant to give advice for prevention of tooth ailments, he added. The chief whip was speaking as chief guest at the launching ceremony of a new organisation styled as Bangladesh Association of Dental Education and Research (BADER) in the BIRDEM auditorium in the city.

Presided was over by BADER President Dr Arup Ratan Chowdhury, the function was also addressed by Prof A K Azad Khan, Dr Suichi Takinami, a dentistry professor of Hokkaido University of Japan, Prof Ashraf Hossain and Dr Mahfuzul Huq Khan.

Khandaker Delwar Hossain said though there had been developments in dental treatment in the post-liberation period, research and scope for systematic education in dentistry were not adequate.

The emergence of the BADER under the international standard organisation, BIRDEM, was very important, the chief whip said and hoped that it would help enhance research and educational programmes in dentistry.

Prof A K Azad Khan said the Bangladesh Diabetes Association would start a modern dental college soon.

Modern equipment to be installed at Osmany airport to check smuggling

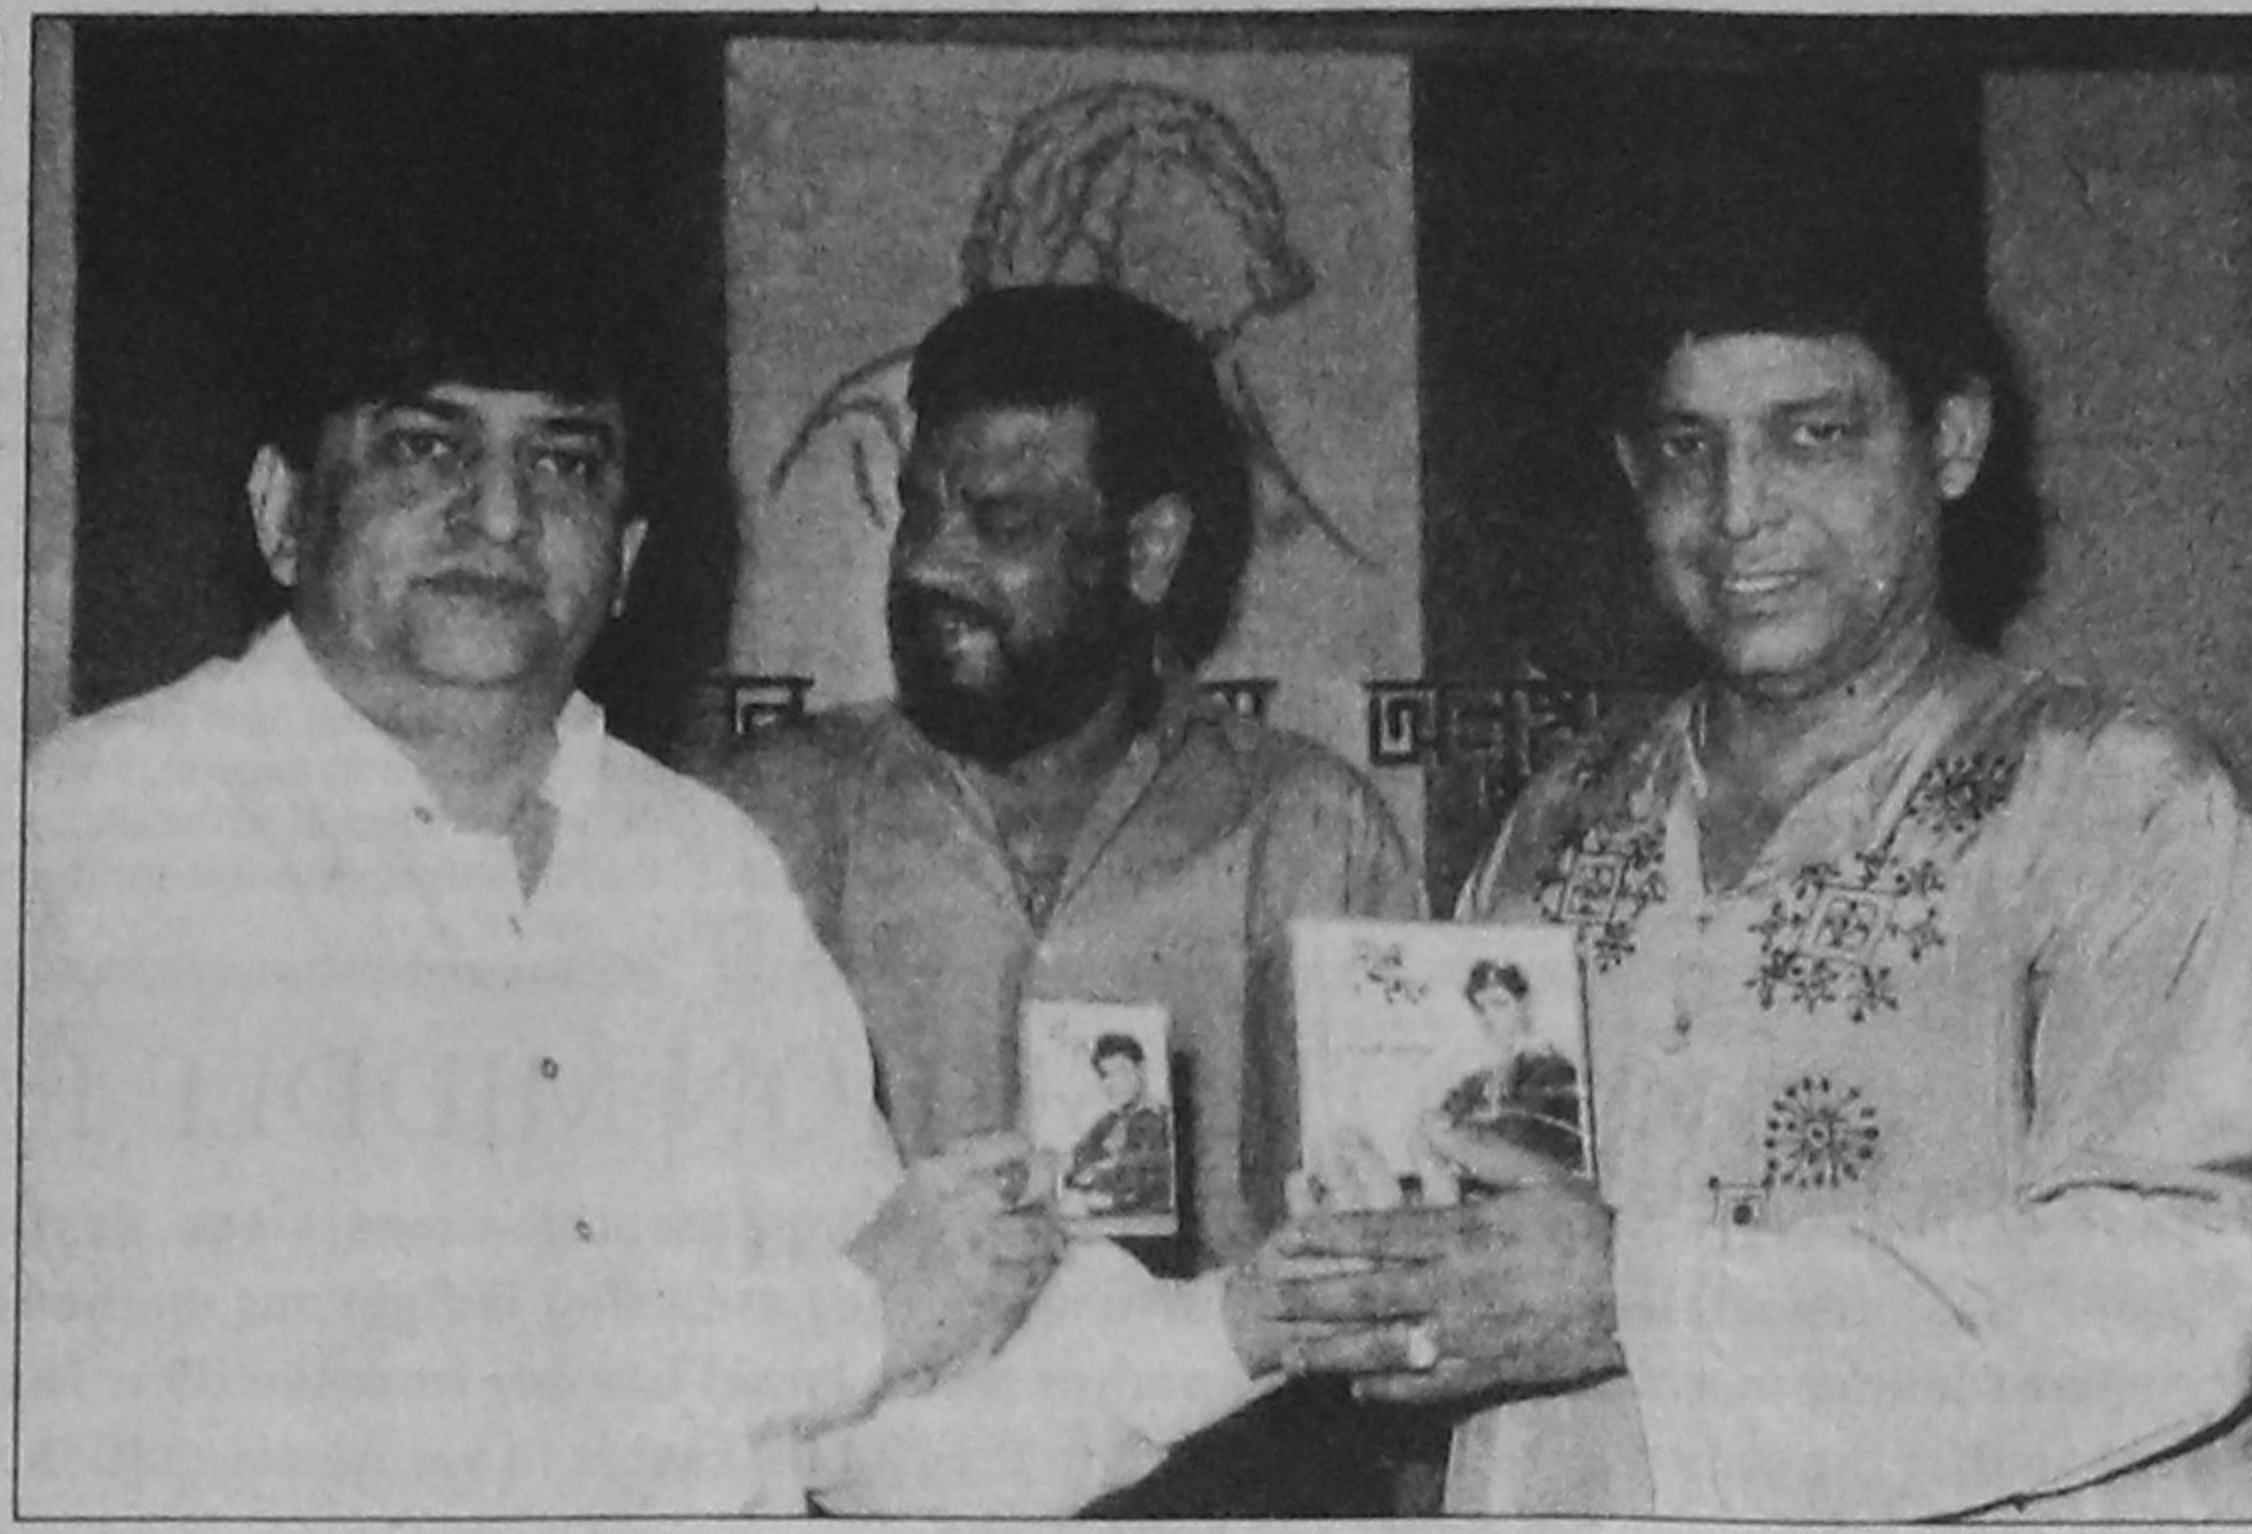

BSS, Sylhet
State Minister for Finance and Planning Shah Mohammad Abul Hussain has said modern equipment would be installed at Sylhet Osmany Airport to check smuggling.

He asked the customs, police and other officials to be more active to stop smuggling and other crimes.

The state minister was talking to local journalists at Sylhet Circuit House on Thursday night.

He came here on an unscheduled visit following the recovery of 33 kgs of gold at Osmani Airport on Tuesday.

Abul Hussain also held a meeting with the officials at the circuit house.

Doctors asked to take proper care of dengue patients

Health minister visits DMCH

UNB, Dhaka

A three-day Cancer and Marrow Transplant Camp will be held at 167/B Green Road in the city from August 23.

Dr Ranjan Kumar Mohapatra of Apollo Hospital, India, will give advice to the cancer patients and those who need bone marrow transplant. The Bangladesh Telemedicine Service Ltd has organised the camp.

(DMCH) asked the doctors to arrange extra beds so that even a single dengue patient does not leave the hospital without getting treatment.

Dr Musharraf urged the doctors to take proper care and be cautious while providing treatment to the dengue patients.

He went round different wards of DMCH and inquired about the condition of dengue patients.

Director of DMCH Brigadier General Muhammad Nazimul Huda was present on the occasion.

The Minister also visited those who were injured in a clash at Malibag T and T colony on Thursday.

Meanwhile, State Minister for Religious Affairs Musharraf Hossain Shahjahan led a procession at Rupnagar in the city yesterday to raise awareness about the consequences of dengue fever.

The Mirpur Ward No.7 Dengue Resistance Committee organised the procession. Political leaders, ward commissioners and local people took part in the campaign.
