'Sue for damaging buses'

BSS, Dhaka

Communications Minister Barrister Nazmul Huda yesterday directed the authorities concerned to file criminal cases against those who would damage BRTC buses.

He also asked the BRTC authorities to file criminal cases against those involved in damaging its double-decker buses and sue them to realise compensation.

ister condemned the incidents in which the plying of BRTC double-decker buses on Rajshahi-Chapainawabganj route was interrupted and another passenger loaded double-decker bus was damaged at Thakurgaon bus terminal by the Private Bus Owners-Employees Association.

Dengue prevention programme

The Biswa Sahitya Kendra and the Nestlé Bangladesh Limited have jointly started a Dengue Prevention Programme in the city on August 14 to prevent the spread of dengue fever, says a press release.

They organised a special cleanliness drive in Gulshan-2 and its surrounding areas on the first day.

The employees of Nestlé Bangladesh and Biswa Sahitya Kendra also held a rally and took out a procession to raise public awareness about dengue virus. Later, they conducted the cleanliness drive in houses and on the roadside.

The eminent personalities of the society have expressed their full support towards this special dengue prevention programme.

Famous magician Jewel Aich, Chairman of Bangladesh Environment Movement Abu Nasir Khan, Director of Biswa Sahitya Kendra, London branch, Shameem Azad and Head of Human Resources and Corporate Affairs M. Zulfikar Hussain of Nestlé Bangladesh spoke at the rally. Founder-President of Biswa Sahitya Kendra Prof Abdullah Abu Sayeed formally inaugurated the programme.
