Inter-college debate begins in Ctg

CU CORRESPONDENT

The 3rd Lifebuoy Gold-Prothom Alo Inter-College Debate Competition began at the Shilpakala Academy auditorium in the port city yesterday.

Drishy, a local cultural organisation, organised the competition in association with the Lifebuoy Gold and Prothom Alo, a leading Bengali newspaper.

Farid Ahmed Chowdhury, former president of Chittagong Chamber of Commerce and Industry (CCI) and chief advisor of Drishy inaugurated the debate competition.

P R Sinha, governor of Lions Club International District-31584 attended the competition as chief guest while Ekram Hossain, executive vice-president of Arab Bangladesh Bank Ltd, Nurul Alam, Chittagong Bureau chief of The Daily Star and Bishwajit Chowdhury, assistant editor of Prothom Alo were present as special guests.

Chaired by Bridget Dias, president of Drishy, the inaugural function was also addressed by Aminur Rashid Kaderi and Masud Bakul. The function was conducted by Saif Chowdhury, general secretary of Drishy.

The chief guest in his speech said debate could help build a better society through development of leadership quality.

"We should raise awareness in the society by holding such type of debate to get rid of unrest and lawlessness" he added.

Farid Ahmed Chowdhury called upon the students to acquire knowledge and skills to face the challenges of globalisation.

He also dwelt on the importance of debate for the greater pursuit of knowledge.

Nurul Alam urged the students to get themselves involved in extra-curricular activities including debate to face the hard realities of life.

Chittagong Government College, Agrabad Women's College and Islahani Public School and College reached the semi-final round of the competition by defeating their rivals.

The semi-final round will be held on August 27.

Arrest of Sanjoy's killers demanded

CU CORRESPONDENT

The 4th death anniversary of Sanjoy Talapatra, a second year student of Fine Arts Department of Chittagong University (CU) and an activist of Bangladesh Chhatra Union (BCU), was observed on Thursday.

On the occasion, the BCU of Chittagong district unit took out a procession and held a rally at Shah Amanat market premises in the city.

Speakers at the rally demanded immediate arrest and trial of the killers of Sanjoy who succumbed to his injuries at the Chittagong Medical College Hospital on August 22, 1998.

He was injured seriously when the cadres of Islami Chhatra Shibir (ICS) attacked him at the Batali railway station on his way to campus on August 20.

The speakers said the ICS cadres have occupied all the dormitories of the university by ousting leaders and activists of other student organisations.

Presided over by Saron Barua, president of BCU, Chittagong district unit, the rally was addressed by Nur Alam, general secretary of central committee of BCU, Riapayan Barua, president of BCU CU unit, Mir Hossain and Mintu Chowdhury.
