

Turkish envoy presents credentials

UNB, Dhaka

Newly appointed Ambassador of the Republic of Turkey Ferit Ergin presented his credentials to Acting President Muhammad Jamiruddin Sircar at Bangabhaban in the city yesterday.

Welcoming the ambassador, the acting president expressed his happiness at the existing friendly bilateral relations between Bangladesh and Turkey.

The acting president said that there is room to translate the existing political understanding into meaningful economic cooperation and stressed the need for expansion of two-way trade and more Turkish investment in Bangladesh.

He also recalled the cooperation between the two countries in various international fora.

Sircar mentioned the government's emphasis on good governance, rule of law and accountability in all government activities, saying that the government is determined to strengthen democratic process and democratic institutions in the country.

Ambassador Ferit Ergin recalled the friendly bilateral relations existing between the two countries and hoped that it would be deepened and diversified in future.

He referred to the political and economic development of Bangladesh and expressed satisfaction that the two countries are cooperating each other for mutual benefit.

Earlier, on his arrival at Bangabhaban, the ambassador was given a guard of honour by the President's guard regiment. He took salute and inspected the guard.
