Norwegian MPs visit BNWLA home

An 11-member high level delegation comprising the members of the Norwegian Parliament headed by Agot Valle, chairperson of the Standing Committee on Scrutiny and Constitutional Affairs of Norwegian Parliament visited the shelter home "Proshanti" of Bangladesh National Woman Lawyers' Association (BNWLA) in the city yesterday, says a press release.

Norwegian Ambassador in Dhaka accompanied the delegation during the visit.

Advocated Salma Ali and Laila Rashid of BNWLA received the delegation and briefed them about the activities of the organisation.

The delegation went around different sections of the shelter home and inquired about the well being of the inmates of the shelter. They took a lot of interest on the activities carried out by BNWLA.

The children of the shelter home presented a cultural programme.

At the end of the programme, Agot Valle praised the children for their outstanding performance.

She also congratulated Salma Ali, executive director of BNWLA for playing a significant role as a human rights activist in bringing about positive changes in the lives of the most vulnerable groups of the society.

Govt urged to ensure fair price of jute

UNB, Dhaka

Bangladesh Krishak League yesterday asked the government to ensure fair price of jute and threatened to launch vigorous movement to protect the interest of jute growers.

"We'll hold rallies of jute growers across the country to mount pressure on the government," Awami League leader Abdur Razzak MP told a meeting of Krishak League in the city.

sina's government, but the present price is Tk 150 only. "Being deprived of fair price, the farmers are now burning down their produces."

Presided over by acting president of Krishak League Motahar Hossain Mollah, the meeting also decided to hold rallies of sugarcane farmers and of salt and shrimp producers throughout the country.

To hand over jute business to foreign countries, the present government has closed down the Adamjee Jute Mills, making 25,000 workers jobless and frustrating lakhs of jute growers, Razzak said.

He claimed that the price of jute was Tk 500-800 per maund during the tenure of Sheikh Ha-

Closure of ETV protested

CU CORRESPONDENT

Speakers at a rally in the port city on Monday protested the closure of Ekushey Television (ETV).

They demanded of the government to allow the private channel to broadcast its programme.

The speakers said thousands of people across the country want to watch the ETV.

They were speaking at a rally organised by Bangabandhu Smriti Sangsad, Chittagong unit at its office premises in the city.

Fayez Ahmed, a ward commissioner of Chittagong City Corporation (CCC), Ali Al-Karach, a social worker and some student leaders spoke at the rally.

CAREER OPPORTUNITY

Concern, an International Development Agency marking this year as its 30th year working in Bangladesh, works towards bringing about positive changes in the lives of the poorest people in 27 countries in Asia, Africa, Latin America and Eastern Europe invites applications from suitable candidates to take up the position of PROGRAMME MANAGER - Socially Disadvantaged People's Programme (SDPP).

The Socially Disadvantaged People's Programme (SDPP) of Concern targets floating sex workers, their children and street children living inside or outside institutional care with the aim to eliminate discrimination/exploitation against them and to bring about positive changes in their lives. The programme is working in collaboration with the Department of Social Services (DSS) of Government of Bangladesh, as well as with local NGOs and sex workers' organisations in its outreach component.

A senior management position, the Programme Manager (PM) will play a vital role in pushing forward and reviewing the current strategy of the programme, preparing and implementing new programme strategies and suggesting alternatives in line with the corporate strategy. S/he will be responsible for overall management of the programme in liaison with the respective Regional Managers, providing necessary technical support to the SDPP and its partner organisations. S/he will develop different plans for the programme, initiate new proposals and prepare financial and programme reports for internal, external purposes (including donor). Joint planning between Concern and DSS and regular review of progress of work with DSS is a key role. The PM will maintain liaison with respective government departments and other national and international NGOs with expertise in the areas of sex workers, their children and street children. Advocacy and liaison at national level will be the important area for the PM to contribute to.

Requirements: The successful candidate will have a dynamic personality and experience of working with the sex workers and in the areas of human rights. S/he will have the leadership skills to push forward the current programme strategies and suggest alternatives. The person should have experience and expertise in the areas of human rights / right based approaches/programmes with sex workers/street children. Post graduation qualification in areas of Law, Human Rights or Social Sciences is desirable. Oral & written English should be as good as the first language and s/he should be capable of writing reports of excellent professional quality.

Salary: The position entails a minimum starting salary of Tk 40,560/-.

(Commensurate with qualifications and experience there may be some flexibility).

Interested candidates are requested to send their resumes, copy of recent passport size photographs and names and addresses of two referees to Human Resource Department, GPO Box No 650, Dhaka - 1000 by 12 September 2002. Please mark the envelope with the position applied for.
