

Milo-EFA debate festival begins today

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

A week-long debate festival for the school and college students begins at the central public library auditorium in the city today.

A total of 28 educational institutions will take part in the 'Milo-EFA Debate Festival-2002', organised by the Elate Friends Association (EFA) in association with Milo, a Nestle brand.

Law Minister Maudud Ahmed will inaugurate the debate festival while State Minister for Education ANM Abshatul Haq Milon will preside over the ceremony.

The participating educational institutions have been divided into three different groups - Bangla medium, English medium and College. Sixteen Bangla medium schools, eight English medium schools and four colleges will take part in the festival.

The debate festival will continue till September 23. Every day four debate competitions will be held where the debaters will perform in parliamentary and conventional system.

The colleges are Notre Dame College, Hermann Gmeiner College, BAF Shaheen School and College and Rifles Public School and College.

The English medium schools are Manarat International, European Standard, Sunny Dale, Sunbeams, Radiant International, Dhanmondi Tutorial, Cambridge International and Dawn Grammar.

And the Bangla medium schools are Viqarunnisa, Holy Cross, Agrani, Siddheswari, Sher-e-Bangla, Tejoan, St. Joseph, Govt. Laboratory, Residential Yvadel, Motijheel Ideal, Rajuk Uttara, Motijheel Boys, Govt. Science and Dhanmondi Boys.

Freedom of expression a must for democracy: Moudud

BSS, Dhaka

Law, Justice and Parliamentary Affairs Minister Moudud Ahmed yesterday said the freedom of expression is a prerequisite for improving the quality of democracy.

But journalists should take into account the national interest while disseminating news stories, the minister said.

The minister was inaugurating a two-day training programme in the city, organised by the Bangladesh Human Rights Bureau for court correspondents and young lawyers.

Presided over by Justice Mohammad Abdur Rouf, the function was also addressed by Adv. Mohammad Shahjahan, Justice Mohammad Momtaj Uddin Ahmed, Justice Mir Hasmat Ali, Engineer T M Nurul Islam and advocates Golam Arshad and Abdullah Babu. Moudud Ahmed said that nowadays newspapers highlight sensitive and filthy events instead of giving due coverage to good instances in society. Such a trend is not at all desirable, he added.

He said, "We should give coverage to the good things and ignore the bad and negative one for the interest of the country."
