One & Only Star Search 2002 presents a glittering finale at the Sheraton Hotel

AZIZ AMIRUL

Music

N atmosphere of an electrifving nature prevailed at the Winter Garden throughout the evening of September 13. This was the venue of the final event of Benson & Hedges' One & Only Star Search 2002, a promotional band music contest that is held annually with open selection from across the country.

Eleven bands and four solo vocalists, who had earlier crossed preliminary barriers at district levels, appeared before the jampacked auditorium and performed two songs each.

'Abong Sristy', a group of four performers, arrived first on stage to perform. This band, that originated in Dhaka, likes to play two kinds of music, rock with fusion and pure hard rock. 'We are influenced by the spirit of Bon Jovi', said one of the members.

'Warrior', a soft rock band, coming from Chittagong, who are motivated by local icons like Avub Bacchu and James, performed

next Nigar Sultana Shumi took control of things on stage, being the first of the four solo vocalists to appear before the audience. A

Dhaka, gave a big surprise when a five-member band played instrumental composition of semiclassical and fusion type with a main performer, Zubair Malik. 'Dhruba', a band from Dhaka, presented an alternative, rock

on the stage was 'Salvation'. a and rock-n'-roll, and comprised of four members.

Based in Khulna, 'Chorus' seemed attracted to tasteful lyrics and soft melodies .. 'Music, to us, is a second nature', said the 'Chorus' members. Yet another solo performer from Rajshahi, Ashfaqul Bari Rumon, performed a couple of reggae and soft rock numbers with suavity. M. Shamsuzzaman, another soloist from North Bengal, soon followed. He performed soft melodious songs.

Bands, 'Triangle' and 'Recent', both from the port city, arrived on stage with their rock and semi-soft compositions. The last band of the show was 'Orchid' was also from Chittagong and who seemed quite apt.

Before 'Orchid"s arrival, came the hot favourites, 'Subconscious', a band from Dhaka that comprised of five members. They performed intense punk rock and fusion numbers. The band was named as the best band of the evening, hence, of the overall Star Search program.

The evening's schedule stretched till past 10:00 p.m. due to some fine treats from former Star Search winners including singers Mimi Farhana Hug and Ariful Islame, in addition to 'Vi-kings' and 'Shaptak', two renowned bands of the present time. The extravaganza ended through the declaration of the winning list that gave away awards to ten entrants in the form of soloists and bands, but not before a show was presented by members of the Jury Panel - Ayub Bacchu, Foad Nasser, Neo Mendis, Feisal Siddiky, Omar Khaled Rumi and Naquib Khan through their special 'jamming' session

Apart from 'Subconscious', that won the award for best band, the other winners, in category, were Rajshahi-based Ashfaqul Bari Rumon for best soloist and also for best lyricist, Beauty Das for best vocalist, Johan Alamgir of 'Subconscious' for best guitarist,

A part of the Jury Panel

Kamrul Hassan of 'Warrior' for best bassist, Ruptanu Das Sharma of 'The sound vibration musician team' for best keyboard player, Zubair Malik of 'Fusion:

Purbo-Poschim' for best instrumentalist, Tony Vincent Gomes for best percussionist and the band, 'Warrior' for best musical composition.
