Sixth wage board demanded
STAFF CORRESPONDENT
Bangladesh Newspaper Employees Federation at a meeting yesterday asked the government to immediately form the sixth wage board and announce 60 per cent dearness allowance for the journalists and press workers.

The meeting also resolved that steps should be taken for implementation of the fifth wage board in all newspapers. The federation also demanded that the now-defunct dailies The Bangladesh Times and Daily Bangla, weekly Bichitra and fortnightly Ananda Bichitra be re-published and payment of salaries and allowances in different newspapers be regularised.

Chaired by Federation President Afsaruddin Khan, the meeting also urged the factions of Bangladesh Federal Union of Journalists and the Dhaka Union of Journalists to get reunited. Others who spoke in the meeting included Matiur Rahman, secretary general and Shahjahan Talukdar, Shahjalal Mia, Ronen Bhoomik, Selimuddin Selim, Tanvir Hossain, Rafiqul Islam, Nazrul Islam and Mujibul Haq.

Outgoing Australian High Commissioner Robert K Flynn called on Prime Minister Khaleda Zia at her office in the city yesterday.

Bangladesh going forward Australian envoy tells Khaleda

BSS, Dhaka
The outgoing Australian High Commissioner in Bangladesh Robert K Flynn yesterday praised the steps and reforms undertaken by the government as a "big progress" in the economy. His words of appreciation came when he made a farewell call on Prime Minister Khaleda Zia at her office. "Bangladesh is going forward... Its economy has gained momentum," remarked the Australian envoy.

The Prime Minister expressed her satisfaction over the continued Australian support to Bangladesh's economic development and expressed the hope that it would continue in future. Responding to Flynn's keen interest of his country for setting up joint ventures including in fish, fruit and other agro-based industries, the Prime Minister urged the Australian government to provide stipends for more

Bangladeshi students. Flynn lauded the role of Khaleda in the CHOGM held in Australia this year and said her visit to Sydney had created enthusiasm among business community there about Bangladesh. He said some Australian companies were working in the fields of minerals and coal mining in Bangladesh and expressed the hope that Bangladesh one day may emerge as a country based predominantly on mining-economy. Khaleda renewed her invitation to the Australian Prime Minister to visit Bangladesh. Foreign Secretary Shamsheer Moin Chowdhury was present.

President Iajuddin Ahmed hosted a tea party for the diplomats of South Asia, South-East Asia and Far East countries at Bangabhaban yesterday. Charge d'affaires of the Islamic State of Afghanistan, ambassador of the Royal Bhutanese Embassy, High Commissioner of Brunei, ambassador of the People's Republic of China, High Commissioner of India, ambassador of the Republic of Indonesia, ambassador of Japan, ambassador of Democratic People's Republic of Korea, Charge d'affaires of the Republic of Korea, High Commissioner of Malaysia, ambassador of the union of Myanmar, Charge d'affaires of Royal Nepal, High Commissioner of Pakistan, Charge d'affaires of the Republic of Philippines, High Commissioner of Sri Lanka and ambassador of Thailand attended the tea party. Foreign Minister M. Morshed Khan was present on the occasion. High officials of the President's office and Ministry of Foreign Affairs were also present on the occasion.
