Permanent prosecution service suggested

BSS, Dhaka

An inter-ministerial meeting yesterday strongly favoured the necessity of a permanent prosecution service for the development of criminal judicial system and enhancement of skills.

The first meeting on constitution of permanent prosecution unit to raise the skills of criminal judicial system was held at Law, Justice and Parliament Affairs Ministry with Minister Moudud Ahmed in the chair.

The meeting observed that under the current system there was no scope for training public prosecutors, assistant public prosecutors and the concerned people.
