Palatable mysticism, brine-humor Mrinal Sen back with Faheem Shahed's solo musical enraptured the audience

at the National Museum in Dhaka

SAIFUL ISLAM UCOLIC serenity and the dance of the south wind on the waves of a river in spate. rustle of leaves and the carefree run of a boy on furrowed fields are a few of the many heart-flipping images that saturate the powerful lyrics of Faheem. Sour and sweet are the use of wit that surfaces now and then through-of Faheem. Even the tune bears the presence of salty humor binding folk tradition and Sufi dogmas around it. And remarkably the presence of these lots of nuances never exhausts. A musical evening by Faheem Shahed was held at the Sufia Kamal auditorium of the National Museum in Dhaka where the Jute Minister major (retd.)

out the delicate mystic songs Hafizuddin Ahmed Bir Bicram and renowned art critic and short story writer Professor Syed Manzoorul Islam were present. The musical evening was dedicated to the singer's guru Ustad Ram Gopal Mohanto. Faheem Hasan Shahed started with classical music under Shudhin Das and Ramoni Mohon Das. Later, for a long period of twenty years, he was under the generous eyes of eminent Ustad Ram Gopal Mohanto. He learned classical music, Tagore songs, and old Bangla songs under Ustad Ram Gopal Mohanto and started composing lyrics and tunes of modern Bangla songs under his influence.

Eminent art critic and author of numerous popular Bangla short stories Professor Syed Manzoorul Islam said ' JNU (Jawaharlal Nehru University) provided Faheem Hasan the opportunity of getting introduced to a diverse range of cultures and music; people from Africa, East Europe, Ex-Soviet block countries, Middle East, South east Asia etc. This brought a lasting positive impact on his musical thoughts, ideas, and approach.' The singer completed his M.Phil and Ph.D from the Jawaharlal Nehru University and is teaching now at the AIUB as Assistant Professor of Communication Skills. 'The spiritual flavor and the practice of different religious beliefs in Delhi; my interaction with some enlightened personalities of several countries helped me to generate mystic and spiritual ideas in my songs' added the singer. The ongoing cycle of life, the menacing circumstance that thwart the life of a piece loving man and shoves him under pressure, the eternal conflict between good and evil, and many such somber thoughts could be found in plenty in his songs. Apart from dealing with the rudimentary and serious things, some of his songs are also romantic in the sense that they contain the nitty-gritty of love-hate relations of man and woman. 'Though the first few songs of Fahim were romantic and sentimental, a depth has now found its place in his songs and ideas. His songs contain mysticism and that has come to his songs naturally', added Professor Syed Manzoorul Islam who have been following the progress of Fahim, as a singer, since he was a student of the department of English, University of Dhaka. Fahim Shahed is looking forward to the launching of an album that would contain fourteen of his best songs.

E had gone on a sabbatical for eight long vears. Noted film director Mrinal Sen had not directed a single film since 1994. However, this time, he is back again with his directorial venture "Amar Bhuvan" (My world) which will hit the halls on October 11. This bilingual film is the latest from Sen's heart.

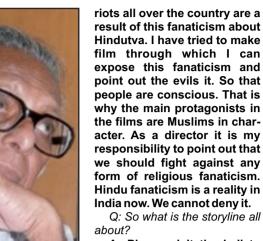

A man whose brilliance could not completely be overshadowed by another legend called Satvajit Roy. Sen, took time off at his residence today to talk about his latest venture and also on few other topics.

Q: After eight years you are finally back again. You movie "Amar Bhuvan" will be released on next Friday. Aren't you tense? Or is it that a legend like Mrinal Sen does not have any tension?

A: I am always tense before the release of any of my movies. Even when I am making the movie or when I am editing it. You know why. As after completion I feel that I have completed the job without any mistakes. When the movie finally hits the halls, then I find out that there are plenty of mistakes in the movie. More than the public acceptance of the movie it is this thought process that affects me. I am tense simply because I am yet to make a movie which I have discovered as faultless after its release. I just wish that I could make one happen.

Q: Eight years you had been on a sabbatical. What prompted you suddenly to come back into

A: The seed was sown during the Kargil war in 1999. I

A: Please visit the hall to find out for yourself.

Q: I have wanted to ask this question to you for a long time. We have heard rumours that you always had a very strained relationship with Mr. Satyajit Ray. What do you have to say about that?

A: Let me tell you a story then. Once M.J.Akbar asked me to do a book review on "Our films Their Films" written by Mr. Ray. I did it and was quite harsh with my criticism. The very next day, after the review had appeared, I called up Mr. Ray. We laughed a little on the criticism that I had done. Then I told him. "I would have been harsher. But I was afraid that if I had been so, your fans would have manhandled me." He told me, "Mrinalbabu, I am surrounded by flatterers. It's good to be criticized by a person from the same trade. Now, I can rectify some of the mistakes that you have pointed out. I wish you had been harsher." So this is the relationship that I shared with Mr. Ray. Now if you want to call it as strained, it's your prerogative.
