Message

I am delighted that North South University (NSU) is holding its 6th Convocation on November 2, 2002. I am proud that the previous BNP Government passed the Private Universities Act in 1992 and the Honorable Prime Minister Begum Khaleda Zia inaugurated NSU as the first private university in the country in February 1993. Since its inception, NSU has played a vital role in imparting world class higher education. It is heartening to note that NSU graduates are well employed in the country, and have also gained admission to prestigious universities abroad. I heartily congratulate the graduates for their achievement. I also congratulate their proud parents and dedicated teachers, whose valuable support, guidance and counsel have made this joyous day possible. I am confident that NSU graduates are fully equipped to meet the challenges of the future with skill and knowledge, and succeed in their chosen field of endeavor.

North South University at a glance

North South University (NSU), the first private university in Bangladesh was established by the NSU Foundation with the initiative of a group of philanthropists, industrialists, bureaucrats and academics. The government of Bangladesh approved the establishment of North South University in 1992. NSU was formally inaugurated on 10 February 1993 by Begum Khaleda Zia, Honorable Prime Minister of Bangladesh. The President of People's Republic of Bangladesh is the Chancellor of NSU. The University is managed by a number of statutory bodies as required under the provisions of the Private Universities Act 1992. At the apex is the Board of Governors (BOG) of NSU Foundation, the founder of the University, which provides policy guidelines and approves the university budget. The BOG is headed by the Chairman elected by its members. Mr. Iftekharul Alam was the founder Chairman of the Board of Governors. Mr. M.A. Awal was the second, Mr. M.A. Kashem was the third and Mr. Azim Uddin Ahmed is the immediate past Chairman. Mr. A.B.M. Kamal Uddin Khan is the current Chairman of the Board of Governors of NSU Foundation. The Porichalona Porshod (Governing Council/Syndicate) is the second highest body after the Board of Governors of the NSU Foundation. It manages the University within the policy guidelines provided by BOG. The Porichalona Porshod consists of BOG members, Vice-Chancellor, representatives of the faculty and University administration. The Vice-Chancellor, as the chief executive officer, runs the university with the help of the following statutory bodies: Academic Council, Finance Committee, School of Studies, Curriculum Committee, and Faculty Selection Committee as defined in the Private University Act 1992. The Registrar maintains the university records and keeps liaison with University Grants Commission (UGC), Ministry of Education and other relevant authorities.

MBA degree recipients. Professor Dr. Iajuddin Ahmed, Honorable President of Bangladesh and Chancellor of NSU will confer degrees upon 251 graduates at this 6th Convocation on November 2, 2002. NSU so far has produced a total 952 graduates. Most of these graduates are employed in internationally reputed companies. Many are pursuing higher education in renowned universities abroad. The credits obtained at NSU are acceptable to most of the better known universities of USA, Canada, Australia and other countries. NSU graduates have been accepted in the Graduate programs of Harvard, Cornell, University of Pennsylvania, and other well-known universities. Six Economics graduates of NSU are studying for higher degrees at York University, Canada, with financial aid provided by York University. NSU attracts foreign students from India, Pakistan, Sri Lanka, Nepal, China, Thailand, Malaysia, Sudan, and Nigeria. Under the Study Abroad and Group Exchange program students from world class institutions of the USA and Canada like Brown University, University of Illinois, Urbana-Champaign, Smith College,

Message

I am pleased to learn that North South University (NSU) is going to hold the 6th Convocation Ceremony on November 2, 2002. I recall with great pride and joy that the Private Universities Act was passed by the Parliament in 1992 during the previous BNP administration. It was my privilege to inaugurate NSU as the first private university of the country in February 1993.

I extend my heartfelt congratulations to the graduating students and wish them great success in their future endeavor. I believe the new graduates will be able to pursue professional goals, and work for the benefit, prosperity and prestige of the country with knowledge, skill and equanimity.

Library
The Library is fully automated for providing better service to the faculty and students. This is a first on-line automated library operation system introduced among the university libraries in Bangladesh. It uses computerized database and circulation system for record keeping, reservation. Users can search and reserve books from distant work stations of NSU through LAN. The holdings of the library cover scholarly and scientific disciplines, particularly business, economic and management, computer science, environmental studies, English language and literature, Bengali language and literature, history and culture, psychology, sociology, etc. The total number of books is over 25,000 and is constantly replenished. It subscribes over 234 journals including 143 on-line journals. In addition the library subscribes 54 Dailies and magazines and has a separate reference and journals section. The library also has a separate study room and cyber corner with broadband connection. NSU Library is a progressive, dynamic resource, which supports the curricular and research needs of the university. Users have access to research materials, slides and AV Cassettes, and CD-ROM database. Recently the library has been shifted to a four storied building to accommodate more facilities and ensure better services. Library service is available six days a week in double shifts.
Information Services: Computer Center NSU Computer Labs provide the best possible computer aided information services to the university community.
- Over two hundred and seventy computers located in all administrative, academic departments and computer labs connected through campus wide Novel-based network system.
- An internal, domestic and international Unix-based networked e-mail services that connect students, faculty, and staff to their colleagues around the world.
- All computer labs equipped with Pentium III, Pentium-III and Macintosh computers. Two labs are exclusively for MBA students. All computers in the labs are networked, and students have access to network through their accounts.
- Labs are equipped with laser printers, a heavy-duty line printer and dot-matrix printers.
- Unix Servers for providing students courses on the Unix based operating system and programming purposes.
- Internet facilities and access to web site.
IDESS - The Research Institute
The Institute of Development, Environment and Strategic Studies (IDESS) is a research center housed within NSU. Though functionally autonomous, IDESS is within the administrative jurisdiction of NSU. Thus, while it enjoys the benefits of freedom and autonomy in setting up its research agenda, it also enjoys access over the resources of NSU.

School of Business has a Professional Development Program (PDP) that offers executive development training, workshop, seminar, symposium, etc. in management and business. Business research, consultancy, and publication of a business journal are other activities.
Department of Career Services
NSU is the first university in Bangladesh to establish the Department of Career Services (DCS). Major functions of this department are:
Internship Placement: It allows students to get an exposure to professional life in their field of study. Internships are arranged with top organizations and financial institutions of the country.
Job Placement & Job Search: The department assists graduates search and find suitable jobs either immediately after graduation or over a period of time.
Study Abroad Program: DCS maintains a library which contains reference materials and books about TOEFL, SAT, GRE and GMAT. It also has catalogues, flyers and information brochures of universities in USA, UK, Australia and Canada.
English Institute
The English Institute offers English language training to non-conventional and adult students to enhance their knowledge of the language and eligibility in the job market. Recently a program called "Certificate in English Proficiency" (CEP) has been launched. Installation of a language laboratory is also in progress. This institute also offers pre-English courses with Alliance Française.
Student Activity Clubs
NSU students have excelled in co-curricular and extra curricular activities. From organizing seminars and symposiums to debating and impromptu speech; from drama to music; from publishing student journal to contributing poems and stories to the national dailies; from donating blood to administering polio vaccines; they participate in a whole gamut of activities under 14 different student clubs. The clubs are run by the students & supervised by faculty advisors. The clubs are:
Design for the New Campus
Recently the architectural design of the NSU campus has been finalized and the consultant who will supervise and execute the construction has also been selected. The construction of the campus on a land of above 5.5 acres at Bashundhara, will cost about 2000 crores taka when completed. This impressive building will have all the modern amenities of an urban university.

Windsor University, York University, Mt. Holyoke College and other similar institutions attend summer semester at NSU and transfer credits back to parent institutions. Visiting faculty from foreign universities including US and Canadian universities teach courses at NSU. The university is committed to high quality education. It is very selective in recruiting teachers and admitting students. Its current enrolment is about 3200.

efforts have made this memorable day possible.
I believe that through tireless efforts and expert training from the faculty and with support from their parents, the graduates have received the best possible knowledge to face the challenges of professional life. I hope that our graduates will keep up the image of North South University in their work places and in all future endeavors.
Once again, I congratulate the graduating students and wish them the very best of luck.

North South University (NSU) celebrates the 6th Convocation with joyful excitement. For the 251 members of Class of 2002 and NSU community, November 2, 2002 is a memorable day. NSU has provided the graduating students a high class higher education and significant training. The graduates now have the skill, knowledge and poise to excel at workplace or pursue higher study abroad. I have no doubt they will not only contribute to socio-economic development of the country, they will also uphold moral values and ethical standard to make Bangladesh an ideal country. I am confident they will demonstrate their aptitude, acumen and good sense in their chosen professions.
Let me convey my heartfelt congratulations to the graduating students, their parents and teachers. I wish the young graduates great success in their future endeavors.

Dr. Hafiz G.A. Siddiqi
Pro Vice Chancellor
