ICDDR,B: Centre for Health and Population Research held a silent auction of paintings and artworks by eminent senior and young artists of the country for its Hospital Endowment Fund to maintain treatment cost of the hospital's patients

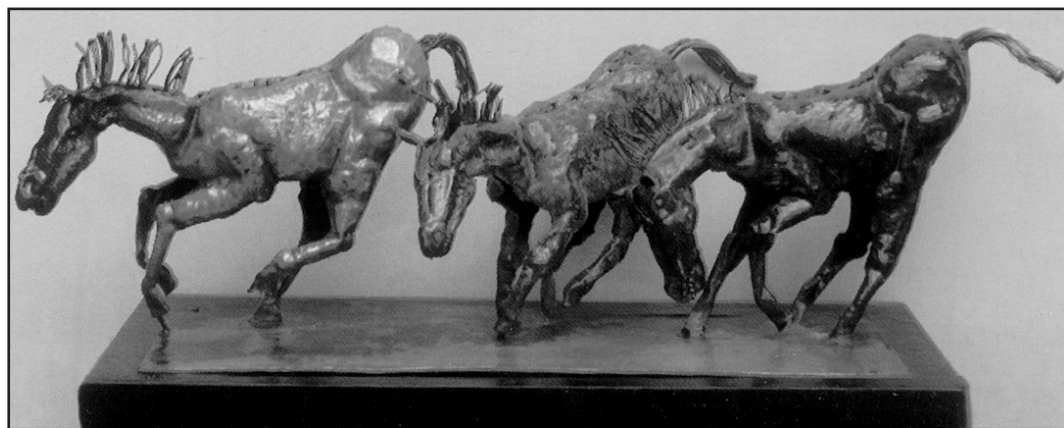

HARUN UR RASHID

ON the rooftop pavilion of the Sasakawa Auditorium at the ICDDR,B premises, a huge collection of beautiful paintings has been on display for silent bidding of interested art connoisseurs of the country since November 1. With a mission 'to develop and disseminate solutions to major health and population problems, with emphasis on simple and cost-effective methods of prevention and management', the ICDDR,B has arranged the five-day exhibition and silent auction of paintings and artworks to raise funds for the promotion of its Hospital Endowment Fund (HEF). Sponsored by Duncan Brothers (Bangladesh) Limited, this is ICDDR,B's second such drive. The first auction to raise funds for the HEF was held in 2001.

The event aims to enable the Hospital to provide stability to its healthcare services to patients with diarrhoea and related diseases. Professor Barkat-e-Khuda, Acting Director of ICDDR,B, welcomed everyone at the exhibition and the auction. H. E. Borje Mattson, Ambassador, Embassy of Sweden, Professor Ricardo Uauy Dagach, Chairperson of ICDDR,B Board of Trustees, participating artists and distinguished guests attended the inaugural ceremony of the exhibition auction. Vivienne Thorpe, the Chairperson of HEF, thanked the audience for attending the function.

The Hospital Endowment Fund of ICDDR,B is 'a life-saving investment' for around ten thousand patients affected with deadly diseases like pneumonia, diarrhoea, and other diseases of malnutrition. The Cholera Hospital at Mohakhali, as it is popularly known, serves thousands of patients of these diseases every month, and it has a success rate of more than 99.5 percent. This achievement in treating diarrhoeal diseases has brought ICDDR,B world recognition and the Hospital won the First Gates Award for Global Health in 2001.

The HEF was established in 1991 with a contribution of US$ 15,577 made by ten individuals, the first contribution having come from a Bangladeshi. Since then business firms, philanthropists, foreigners, entrepreneurs, and even the patients have contributed to this permanent fund. With a sound investment strategy of the HEF Board of Governors, the Fund has raised an amount of US$ 5.6 million. Patients who come to the Cholera Hospital get free treatment of oral rehydration solution, intravenous fluids, antibiotics, accurate diagnosis, nourishing meals, nutritional guidance, and practical guidelines to remain healthy after they go back home; the cost of treatment, however, is met up with the money from the Fund. Thus the hospital saves lives at minimal cost. Forty-nine artists have donated a total of ninety-one art pieces for the auction. The artists include the senior most artists like Mohammed Kibria and Aminul Islam, as well as the young generation painters like Sarkar Nahid Niazi, Kazi Sayed Ahmed, Firoze Mahmud, and Zonayed Mostafa Chowdhury. Ten renowned female artists are also displaying their works. The works have been done in different media including oil, acrylic, water colour, wood-cut, tempera, collage, vegetable dye, print, etching, lithograph, ink-wash, drawing, and mixed media. Eminent art critique Rabiul Husain expresses his hope in the preface to the brochure brought out on the occasion, 'We will have an opportunity to cherish and enjoy a world of deep perception and inner feelings of the artists through their use of colours, subjects, styles, forms, techniques and textures.' The collection consists of some realistic, abstract, and expressionistic styles and traditions. But there are also some figurative and non-figurative works. Rabiul Husain further says, 'Our artists are making the sojourn in that direction [of contemporaneity with modernism that ought to be different...from the past] with a sense of seriousness to reach the goal through different works of varied styles....'

Equation by Zonayed Mostafa Chowdhury Wood-cut

Aminul Islam's drawing Chaos and speed, Syed Jahangir's oil painting Careless of rain, Abu Taher's Saddest thought in oil on canvas, Hashem Khan's two works on 'Pre-autumn' done in water colour and collage, Abdus Shakoor's oil painting Kamala 15 on folk theme, Rofique Ahmed's series work in tempera on fishermen, Nasim Ahmed Nadv'i's ink-wash presentations of natural phenomena were seemed to be quite significant among all. Artists Matiar Rahman, Zeenat Wahid, and Alakesh Ghosh have presented works on nature in watercolour. Mukul Muksuddin's sculpture Wild horses in beaten copper sheet has sheer beauty of the wild and primitive nature. Artist Kanak Champa Chakma's A sunny day in acrylic and Alone in evening in mixed media characteristically present the nature and people of the Hill Tracts. Among other female artists, Rokeya Sultana's works are mostly soft ground etching aquatint; one titled Lady, however, is in vegetable dye. Apart from paintings, some stoneware by Sayeed Talukder is also on display for sell. And a few souvenir items, such as, mugs, umbrella, caps, silk and denim ties and purses, mouse pads, and logo-stickers are also being sold at considerable prices. All the money from the sale will go to the Fund.

There is a donation box for instant donation from the visitors. Information regarding the auction and the paintings may also be obtained from ICDDR,B's official web-site <http://www.icddr.org>.

Vivienne Thorpe informed of her happiness as she observed the highly positive activities of ICDDR,B, and also the humanitarian participation of these artists whose works were on auction. She requested everyone to donate to the fund. In his message Professor Dagach said, 'If you plan to invest in this organisation, you could not have made a better choice!'

HBO: 2:30 p.m. Chameleon. Reminiscent of Luc Besson's highly successful, Le Femme Nikita, this high kicking action thriller, set in the year 2028, follows the life of Kam, an assassin for a government agency. Genetically designed with strength and agility, she is assigned to save and protect a 10 year-old eyewitness to a murder from nefarious forces that control their futuristic world. Will she be successful?

HBO: 8:00 p.m. Matilda. Not all children are born normal especially those born out of Roald Dahl's mind. Born into a dump of a family, Matilda is a surprisingly sweet and warm welcome. But she'll soon learn that the world is a mean place to be. Lessons from her principal from hell, cat-kickers and her Manson-type family have taught her so. She will also discover that she has the power to change all that. Her efforts to deal with her parent's cruelty unleash her gift of telekinesis.

Mrs. Winterbourne
On HBO at 12:00 p.m.
While Mrs. Winterbourne is said to be based on the noisish novella, "I Married A Dead Man", it's doubtful author Cornell Woolrich envisioned the big screen adaptation of his dark tale of deceit and blackmail to play like a hilarious comedy.
