

PM assures speedy trial of killers of Goswami

BSS, Dhaka
Prime Minister Khaleda Zia yesterday assured speedy trial of the killers of school teacher Swapan Kumar Goswami under the law and directed the Education Ministry to arrange a job for Swapan's widow.

She also handed over a cheque for Taka one lakh to Shimla Goswami, wife of Swapan Goswami a teacher of the Government Laboratory School. Goswami was killed allegedly by some derailed students on October 26.

When the widow, three-year old son Ornat Goswami and mother Usha Rani Goswami met Khaleda Zia at the Prime Minister's Office morning, she expressed deep shock at the premature death of the meritorious school teacher, who stood first class first in his Bachelor of Education (B.Ed) examination.

A touching scene was witnessed when the PM asked Ornat what is his name? And in reply, the little boy said, "my father is dead." AT this Ornat's mother and grandmother could not control themselves and burst into tears.

Khaleda consoled them and said "Though Swapan is no more, you are not alone. We will always remain beside you. We will help you if you let us know about your problems."

The Prime Minister lamented that the country lost a dedicated and meritorious teacher in the death of Swapan.

The Prime Minister asked the State Minister for Education ANM Ehsanul Haq Milan, who was present there, to arrange a job suitable for Shimla Goswami soon according to her qualifications. Shimla passed Higher Secondary Certificate (HSC).

She said all the killers would be arrested and punished under the law of the land.

Shimla expressed her gratitude for the kindness of the prime minister and desired that no teacher in future is killed like her husband and no woman become widow in such a way at her age.

PM's Political Secretaries Haris Chowdhury and M Mosaddeq Ali, Principal Secretary Dr Kamal Siddiqui, Dhaka Education Board Chairman Prof. Jonaid, Government Laboratory School Headmaster Rashiduddin Zahid and Commissioner of Ward No 55 Sirajul Islam were present during the meeting.
