Mysterious and absorbing

Noted painter Murtaja Baseer's solo exhibit continues in the city

Artist Murtaja Baseer with his works fusion A particular work, for instance, the no. 4, has the name of Allah in the middle in red while 'la ilaha... comes as a thatch to provide a sort of shelter as the word. 'Muhammad-ur Rasulullah' faints away at the bottom. The Allah of 'la ilaha...' inscribed in purple shines like a star in the dark firmament. In the Holy Qur'an, a true believer is often compared with a tree, green in shade that spreads its branches, twigs and leaves towards the blue sky and bears sweet, juicy, colourful fruits. The roots of the tree go deep down in their search for wisdom, piety and universal fraternity. The colours in the works of Murtaja Baseer hence too, relate to this special message and interpretation, as we find green dominating in most of the creations . This is along with blue, red and yellow. In several of the works, yellow shines with intense brightness like shade of beaten gold thus glorifies the composition resembling the sun, a central figure of the solar system.

Kalema Tayeba in oil on canvas

From work no. 9 onwards, green along with orange and yellow occupies most of the foreground and also gives way to violet and deep red. Sometimes, the word 'la ilaha...' in green resembles a dense forest while the inscription of the word, 'Muhammad-ur Rasulullah' hangs like fruits from behind the foliage. Baseer attempts to break the monotony of the calligraphic precision of the subject through usage of a wide range of shades while he draws forms of the same phrase of the Kalema Tayeba but only with a fresh alteration of position, shape and size. Each and every time, the same thing comes before the viewers' sight as a completely new work of art.

Murtaja's earlier exhibitions depicted works upon wings of the butterfly, upon forms of pebbles and now it has come through the holy words of the Kalema. To some, the latest works of the artist may give rise to controversy and would dismiss him as a popular stunt, yet those who follow Murtaja Baseer would certainly know that a deep sense of mysticism and spiritual coherence is persistently present in his works. Murtaja Baseer, a great son of a great father, Dr. Muhammad Shahidullah is ever since determined to continue his journey into the world of mysticism and that of the cryptic.

The exhibition is open everyday from 11:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. till November 15.

Singer Shelu Barua's solo

musical mastery

CULTURE DESK

NTITLED 'Neel Dhrubo Tara', a fascinating musical solo performance was held on November 4 at the Engineers' Institute auditorium in the city where artiste Shelu Barua rendered songs.

The event that was arranged by Palli Baul Samaj Unnayan Sangstha, an organisation of folk mystic singers and promoters of the country, brought in before a large audience the highly popular vocalist Shelu Barua who presented a total of 17 numbers including Tagore and Nazrul songs, in addition to modern classical songs and also numbers from the golden past. Some of the numbers included 'Shediner sona jhora shondhya', 'Naam rekhechi bonolota', 'Amay
