Artist Fokhrul Islam holds solo exhibit

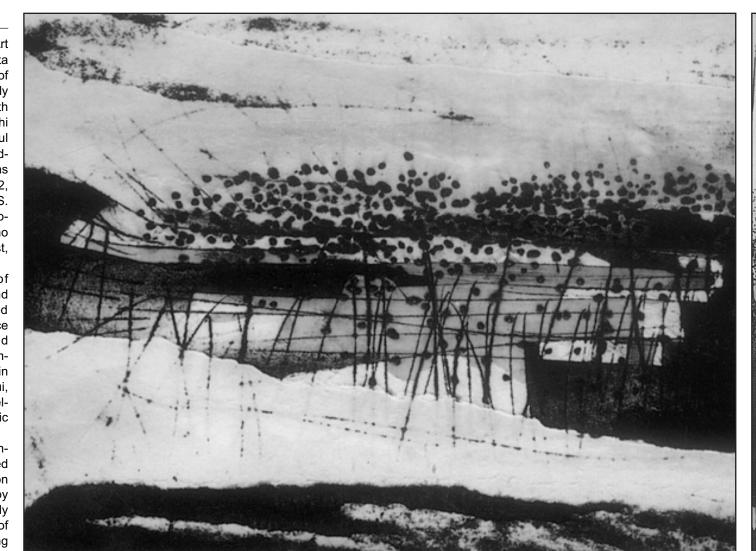

AZIZ AMIRUL

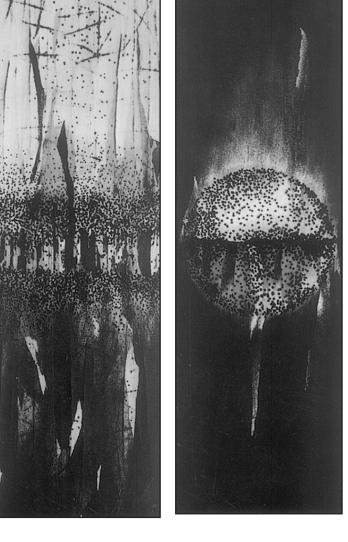

IRLA Academy of Art and Culture at Kolkata in the Indian state of West Bengal has currently been holding an exhibition with works those of Bangla-deshi artist Moham-mad Fokhrul Islam at the gallery of the academy. The exhibition that has kicked-off on November 12, has been sponsored by G.S. Kabir, a renowned art promoter from Bangladesh, who himself is also a reputed artist. presently based in Japan.

Well-known artists of Kolkata, Badhan Das and Wasim Kapoor inaugurated the display with the presence of Mohammad Touhid Hossain, Deputy High Commissioner of Bangladesh in India and Jahan Ara Siddiqui, Political and Cultural Counsellor of the same diplomatic mission in India.

As the artist, one quite humble in attitude, has mentioned in the foreword of his exhibition brochure, works composed by him on the canvas are only there to reflect his ability of painting instead of depicting any extraordinary merit expected by general viewers from an artist of great merit.

'I simply possess the least degree of ability and courage needed to be an artist. One thing which I always dislike is the phrase, 'grammar of art' or in that sense, 'grammatical artwork', said Fokhrul. Through his works, the artist has been in constant pursuit of revealing his as one could never judge his or her own passion for a being or topic in this universe.

In Fokhrul's words it could be said that the artist would have felt better had the works been displayed before the viewers brought some joy in their minds and souls. 'If they touch your heart even, in a slightway, then I would be happy as
