

Envoy presents credentials Australia urged to increase import from Bangladesh

UNB, Dhaka
President Iajuddin Ahmed yesterday reaffirmed Bangladesh's principled stand that the country believes in peace and hates all forms of terrorism.

He made the observations while he was talking to the newly appointed High Commissioner of Australia to Bangladesh, Ms Lorraine Margaret Barker. The envoy presented her credentials to the President at Bangabhaban.

The President said Bangladesh condemned the Bali blast in Indonesia in which many Australians lost their lives. "We share the grief of the Australian people."

He said Australia can import more from Bangladesh and encourage their entrepreneurs to invest here for further strengthening bilateral cooperation. He put much stress on educational cooperation, particularly at university level, saying that it will help exchange ideas and knowledge.

The newly appointed Australian High Commissioner recalled with satisfaction the development of friendly relations between Bangladesh and Australia. She said that there is further scope for strengthening the bilateral relations.

"Australia would continue to cooperate with Bangladesh in her development efforts," she said expressing the hope that Australia-Bangladesh relations would be further deepened in future.
