Kumar Sangakkara hit a maiden one-day century as Sri Lanka recovered to post 223 for 6 from 50 overs against Pakistan in the Sharjah Cup here on Friday.

The left-hander overcame his modest form at the World Cup, where Sri Lanka reached the semifinals, to make an unbeaten 100 off 111 balls and beat back a spirited display in the field by the new-look Pakistanis.

Sri Lanka, electing to bat first in the day-night game, slumped to 166 for 6 before Sangakkara and recalled veteran Kumar Dharmasena put on 57 for the undefeated seventh wicket.

Sangakkara, playing his 86th one-dayer, reached his century off the penultimate ball of the innings while Dharmasena remained unbeaten on 23.

Pakistan, who defeated Zimbabwe in Thursday's opener of the four-nation event, are rebuilding under new captain Rashid Latif after sacking eight top stars following the first round exit in the World Cup.

Their latest new ball attack of removed the dangerous Sri Lankan opening pair of Marvan Atapattu and Sanath Jayasuriya cheaply.

Gul, who claimed two wickets on his debut on Thursday, bowled Atapattu for 13 with a ball that swung in sharply.

Jayasuriya made 27 when he drove Sami uppishly to cover where Mohammad Hafeez took a waist-high catch and reduced Sri Lanka to 44-2.

Avishek Gunawardena helped Sangakkara carry the score to 84 when he was beaten by a direct hit by Sami from mid-off.

Sri Lanka moved to a promising 166-4 in the 42nd over when Rana Hasan swung the game around with two wickets off successive balls.

Both Hashan Tillekeratne and Prasanna Jayawardena failed to negotiate the reverse swing which Hasan generated and were yorked, but Dharmasena denied the bowler a hat-trick.

Sangakkara hit nine boundaries as Sri Lanka set Pakistan a victory target of 4.5 runs an over under lights.

Nafees Iqbal blasted a superb ton to put Mohomedan Sporting Club on course for an imposing first innings total on the first day of their GrameenPhone Premier Division Super League match against Abahani at the BKSP ground in Savar yesterday.

Nafees, the right handed Chittagong opener made 135 as Mohomedan, electing to bat after winning the toss, scored 390 for six at stumps with ten more of their allotted 100 overs in their hands.

Nafees hit four sixes and 14 boundaries in his 290 minutes vigil at the crease.

Together with Indian recruit Sandeep Sharma, Nafees gave Mohomedan a brilliant start with a 134-run opening stand.

The partnership was broken when Sandeep, the right handed Punjab batsman, who had a wonderful series in South Africa with the Indian A team last year, was out for 82.

Sandeep, in his very first appearance in the Dhaka league, impressed all hammering three sixes and eleven boundaries in his 141-minute knock.

Among others middle order Naimur Rahman was batting on a run-a-ball 52 while one-down Aftab added 40.

Naimur, the former national skipper hit two sixes and four fours.

Clarke in for Martyn

Brisbane on Friday.

Chairman of selectors Trevor Hohns said Clarke deserved his selection on his form throughout the last season.

"Michael has certainly been in the minds of selectors for some time and the opportunity has now become available to elevate him into the Test squad," Hohns said in an ACB statement.

"He is a young enthusiastic player who will add some spark and versatility to the team."

"We regard Michael as a promising player for the future and the tour will be a tremendous learning experience for him."

"The West Indies is a tough tour to undertake first-up in your career with difficult conditions and surroundings, but the knowledge he will gain will put him in good stead for future tours and build his grounding as a quality player."

Clarke, who plays for New South Wales, made his one-day international debut for Australia against England in Adelaide in January and played for Australia A against South Africa A in

ICC seeks more elite umpires

Cricket

INTERNET, London

The International Cricket Council is set to increase the size of the game's elite umpiring panel from eight to 11.

The names of the three extra officials have yet to be confirmed by the ICC, but New Zealand Cricket say Billy Bowden will be among them.

The 40-year-old, known for his unorthodox signalling methods, has so far stood in only three Tests and 19 one-day internationals.

But he impressed with his performances during the World Cup in South Africa, and was part of the off-field umpiring team for the final between Australia and India.

"He has worked hard for this recognition, which is well deserved," said New Zealand umpiring manager Brian.

"The appointment has been a goal of Billy's and is a significant achievement."

The elite panel of eight umpires and five match referees was established a year ago, and they officiate in all Test matches around the world.

It was envisaged that, on average, they would each stand in 12 Test matches and 15 one-day internationals per year, a potential on-field workload of 75 days.

But the demands of the job and the hectic fixture schedule has persuaded the ICC that extra umpires are required.

Pakistani great Wasim Akram said Thursday the attitude of Hampshire had been a key factor in his signing for the southern English county.

Fast-bowling all-rounder Wasim, 36, who at the World Cup became the first player in history to take 500 one-day international wickets, said: "I was impressed by the enthusiasm and ideas shown by Hampshire and am delighted to join such a progressive county."

And Hampshire manager Paul Terry believes Wasim's experience will be of immense value in helping the county bounce back to the first division of the County Championship following last season's relegation.

"We hope his experience will rub off on our youngsters," former Hampshire and England opening batsman Terry said.

"He is a world-class player - and we have the big-name signing we were looking for."

Wasim has flown to St Lucia for a tournament on the Caribbean island but is due to join up with the rest of the Hampshire squad on April 9.

Once a mainstay of the Lancashire attack, Wasim became one of Hampshire's overseas players - Australia batsman Simon Katich is the other - after his fast bowling international team-mate Shoaib Akhtar pulled out due to international commitments.

The 'Rawalpindi Express' only became a Hampshire target after Australia leg-spinner Shane Warne, who was due to captain the Rose Bowl-based club this season, was banned for a year following a positive drugs test in February.

Now that Hampshire stalwart and former England middle-order batsman Robin Smith has resigned the county captaincy, Wasim could even find himself leading his new side.

Bond named NZ player of year

INTERNET, Undated

Fast bowler Shane Bond scooped the pool at New Zealand Cricket's awards dinner on Thursday.

Bond won three awards in just his second season of international cricket, including player of the year honours.

The Canterbury paceman also won the award for first-class bowling and the Walter Hadlee Trophy for one-day international bowling.

The former policeman was the fourth different winner of the top award in the past four years after Chris Cairns in 1999-2000, Mark Richardson in 2000-01 and Nathan Astle last year.

Bond spearheaded the attack in New Zealand's inaugural Test series victory in West Indies last July.

And he was the Black Caps' star performer in the World Cup, where he claimed 17 wickets and a national record six for 23 against eventual champions Australia.

Bond played just six first-class matches in the past year - four of them Tests against West Indies and India - taking 30 wickets at an average of 20.
