The beginning of Arya Theatre

The staging of the play Aadam Surat at the Central Shahid Minar recently marked the start of yet another new theatre group, Arya Theatre. Formed about five months back, the group took the time for its preparation for the staging of this play. The event was cordially attended by many eminent personalities from the country's cultural arena.

Based on a story by Munshi Prem Chand, adapted and directed by Arup Anwar, the play Aadam Surat depicts a spiritual journey in search of an ideal human being who does not have any identity as such, religious or national, nor is he a theist or an atheist.

a psyc of a revolutionary new treatment, which allows her mind to literally enter the mind of her patients. Her experience in his method takes an unexpected turn when an FBI agent comes to ask for a desperate favour. They had just tracked down a notorious serial killer, Carl Stargher, whose MO is to abduct women one at a time and place them in a secret area where they are kept for about 40 hours until they are slowly lrowned STAR MOVIES: 8:40 p.m. The Hot Spot. A loner drives into a small Texas town and gets himself a job at the used car place. Being an opportunist, he checks out the bank for security and begins setting fires around town in order to set up an eventual heist. The boss' wife wishes to use him for her own purposes, and begins attempting o manipulate him. He resists as he finds himself falling in love with the accountant at work, who has her own problem to work out.

Jake Riley is working on the "Torch" case, a psycho serial killer, who kills women with kids and sets them on fire after they are dead. The killer calls Riley sometimes and now that Riley retires, the killer has no person to play against anymore. The NSA comes into play here and offers a job to Riley. A clone of the killer should help him find the real one, as kind of test if it works out.
