JU hall officials on strike over JCD action

JU CORRESPONDENT

Administrative activities at Shahid Salam Barkat (SSB) hall in Jahangirnagar University (JU) collapsed as the hall authorities went into work abstention since Sunday night.

Hall officials started the programme following the confinement of the provost and house tutors of the SSB hall for three hours by the Jatiyatabadi Chhatra Dal (JCD) leaders and activists.

As the office services stopped, the residents could not obtain hall clearance needed to sit for examinations.

The university authorities will not allocate seats to the freshers of 2002-03 academic session in the SSB hall as the hall authorities continue with their programme and the students are to face acute accommodation crisis.

Classes of 2002-03 academic session will start from Thursday.

The authorities are yet to take any decision regarding punishment to those involved in the Sunday night incident.

Jahangirnagar University Teachers Association meets today (Wednesday) to decide their plan of action if the guilty are not given exemplary punishment.

The JCD leaders cautioned against punishment to any of its activist. They also demanded immediate withdrawal of the expulsion order against its activists, removal of the SSB hall provost and reshuffle in the hall committee.

"We will not allow entry of the hall authorities until our demand is met," said Parvez Mallik, JU unit president of the JCD.

When contacted over telephone, vice chancellor and pro-vice chancellor of the JU were not available for comment.

The JCD leaders and activists confined the provost and eight house tutors of the hall for three hours Sunday night as the authorities expelled three of its activists last Friday for beating up the manager and caterer of the hall canteen for non-payment of canteen bills.

ETV case verdict Aug 20

UNB, Dhaka

The judgment on ETV cases seeking direction from the court regarding the return of seized equipment and granting of a fresh broadcasting licence to the company will be delivered on August 20.

A High Court Division Bench comprising Justice M A Wahhab Miah and Justice Shamim Hasnain yesterday set the date for judgement after hearing lengthy arguments from the contending parties.

Concluding his submission, Dr Kamal Hossain, counsel for ETV's contending chairman Abdus

Salam, refuted the government attorney's contention saying that Bangladesh Telecommunication Regulatory Commission (BTRC) has been empowered to issue licence for operation of private TV channel.

He said there was no law authorising the Ministry of Information to grant licence to any private television channel.

Dr Kamal further submitted that the BTRC has adopted the strategy of delaying the licensing process with a malafide intention to frustrate the petitioner's case.

OBITUARY

On this day, one year ago, Major General (Ret.) Anis Waiz left us so abruptly and so permanently, that his family and friends are still in shock and grieving. To some he was the best teacher they ever had, or the mentor who choreographed their career, or the doctor who made them believe they would get better or the colleague who made everyone believe in the mission of their institution. To his family, he was the brother that supported and inspired, the grandfather whose love was unconditional and the father who was also a best friend. He never once despaired about his illness, had no fear of death. He was a fighter to the end. He died fighting like he did all his battles, for that we all salute him and miss his absence everyday. Please join us, his family, in praying for his departed soul. May Allah bless his soul and give him eternal peace.
