

CIRDAP meet ends with call to focus more on rural dev

BSS, Jakarta

A ministerial-level meeting of 13 countries of the Asia-Pacific region concluded here yesterday with a call to focus more and more on rural development and alleviation of poverty across the globe, particularly in the region.

The 14th meeting of the Governing Council (GC) of the Centre of Integrated Rural Development in Asia and the Pacific (CIRDAP), was inaugurated by Indonesian president Megawati Soekarnaputri on Monday. The meeting called for greater interactions of the regional countries in the field of reduction of poverty, which is the key to development.

LGRD and Cooperatives Minister Abdul Mannan Bhuiyan led the Bangladesh delegation to the GC meeting.

In his statement, Mannan Bhuiyan outlined the government's policy and efforts to eradicate poverty at national level.

Indonesia's Minister for Home Affairs Hari Sabarna, who was the chairperson of the ministerial meeting, told the concluding session that the CIRDAP has to march ahead with its avowed objectives of poverty alleviation and rural development despite resource constraints caused by declining contributions by some donor agencies.

Director general of the Dhaka-based CIRDAP Dr Mya Maung said the inter-governmental organisation is playing a useful role in the region and called for strengthening the regional institution.

The GC meeting decided that Dr Durga Prasad Paduyl of Nepal will be the next director general of the CIRDAP for a four-year term as the tenure of Dr Maung ends in July next year.

Earlier, Bangladesh, Thailand and India held this position. The current DG of CIRDAP, which was set up in 1979, is from Myanmar.

Indonesian support for ARF membership sought

Bhuiyan calls on Megawati

BSS, Jakarta

Minister for Local Government, Rural Development and Cooperatives Abdul Mannan Bhuiyan paid a courtesy call on Indonesian President Megawati Soekarnoputri at the Merdeka Palace here on Monday.

Bhuiyan, who is here in connection with a regional meeting on rural development, conveyed to the Indonesian President the warm greetings of President Iajuddin Ahmed and Prime Minister Khaleda Zia.

He expressed Dhaka's deep satisfaction at the visit that President Megawati undertook to Bangladesh in June and said Bangladesh considered the visit as highly successful and productive.

Megawati recalled her visit to Bangladesh as highly satisfying and said she had extended an invitation to Khaleda to visit Indonesia and is hoping that the visit would take place sometime soon.

Bhuiyan discussed with her different issues of bilateral and common interests, including trade, closer understanding on regional and international matters as well as bolstering the cooperation, particularly in the fields of culture and education, and rural development.

He sought Indonesian support for Dhaka's membership in the regional forum ARF, activating the joint economic commission (JEC) that was set up in principle earlier and a new cultural and educational agreement.

Megawati agreed to closer ties between the two countries and expressed satisfaction at the steady development of the Dhaka-Jakarta relationship.

She said the two countries can have more cooperation in new areas from which both will be benefited.

She said Indonesia will be hosting the 50th anniversary of the Asia-Africa conference in the historic city of Bandung in 2005 and invited Bangladesh to participate in the highest level at the summit celebrations.

Bhuiyan was accompanied by Rural Development and Cooperatives Division Secretary Hedayetul Islam Chowdhury and Bangladesh Ambassador to Indonesia Nasim Firdous.

Another report says, Bhuiyan yesterday met Jusuf Kalla, Indonesian Minister for Coordinating Measures for People's Welfare and discussed with him different issues of common interest.

He also called on Aliarwan Hana, the State Minister for Cooperatives, Small and Medium Enterprises. Bhuiyan told BSS that he had very useful talks with both the ministers pertaining to possibilities of cooperation between the two countries in various fields like cooperatives and areas of medium and small scale industries.
