Kasuri assures stranded Pakistanis of solving problems

BSS, Dhaka

Pakistani Foreign Minister Khurshid Mahmud Kasuri yesterday assured the leaders of stranded Pakistanis of taking effective measures to solve their problems. "The issue of stranded Pakistanis is humanitarian one and it will be solved accordingly," he said when a four-member team of Stranded Pakistanis Youth Rehabilitation Movement (SPYRM) called on him at his hotel suite. The team also gave Kasuri a memorandum apprising him of their problems and requesting him to take immediate step in this regard, a SPYRM press release said.

one of East Rajabazar and the other from Baganbari area - locked in a gunfight for supremacy in the area at around 10:30pm in front of the Green Super Market. They traded around 20 gunshots. Shahinur, wife of Humayun, filed a case with Tejgaon Police Station. Police could not arrest anybody till 8:00pm yesterday.

'Take steps to stop attacks on minorities'

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

Bangladesh Hindu Buddhist Christian Oikya Parishad yesterday urged the government to take necessary steps to stop attacks on the religious minorities.

Addressing a meeting in the city, the parishad leaders called on the democratic forces to come forward to resist such activities.

They alleged that the government was not taking any action against the attackers.

The meeting also decided to hold the triennial conference of the parishad in March next year.

Presided over by Srimat Bodhipal Mohanthero, the meeting was also addressed by Cyril Shikder, advocate Sudhangshu Shekhar Haldar, Prof. Nim Chandra Voumik, Mukul Bose and Nirmal Rozario, says a press release.
