Invitation of Expression of Interest from eligible consultants/researchers

This is to inform all independent consultants/researchers working in the development sector that BangladeshNGO.com is the first ever portal exclusively serving the development sector of Bangladesh. Its primary goal is to represent the NGOs, the donors, the government and the common public in one common platform accessible from all over the world. To coordinate the development sector to increase its efficiency and magnify its force.
In this regard, we are pleased to invite all eligible consultants/researchers to submit an Expression of Interest to be included in the portal as a member in the consultant section of the portal. This section is designed specifically for NGOs looking for prospective consultants/researchers for their projects and will serve as a rendezvous point for both parties. Successful enlistment will therefore automatically indicate the applicants desire to be available to all NGOs as a prospective paid consultant/researcher for their future development work. Actual name and address will not be published and all correspondence shall be performed through the portal management due to security purposes.
BangladeshNGO.com is available at www.bangladeshngo.com and we encourage all applicants to visit the consultant section to gather further knowledge of the process.
The EOI should include the applicants detailed curriculum vitae (CV) stating at least name, address, contact info, work experience and membership with professional bodies (if any). Work field(s) of interest should be written in bold at the end of the CV. The EOI should be submitted both in print and in a floppy (Word format). The floppy label should clearly indicate the name and address of the applicant.
Please submit or mail your EOI on or before the 30th of November 2003 during office hours at the address stated below.
