

SNAPS

2 Hill Students
Council leaders hurt in clash

ARU CORRESPONDENT
Two leaders of Hill Students Council (HSC), a body of Chittagong Hill Tracts students, were injured when rival groups clashed at Shahi Mukund Hall at Rajshahi University (RU) Monday night.

The victims are former HSC president Korno Kishor Chakma and its member Shilash Roy.

They were admitted to Rajshahi Medical College Hospital. Rivalry between the incumbent and the former president of HSC was the reason for the clash, sources said.

Man with fake note held

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Sylhet
One person was arrested for possessing five forged notes of Tk 100 denomination from Madhaskasi bazaar in Sadar upazila on Monday evening.

Police said, Abdulla, son of Abdus Sattar of Chhoygaria village in Sadar upazila was caught by people at Madhakati bazaar while trying to push a fake note of Tk 100 denomination to a shop owner after purchasing goods from the shop. Finding the note a fake one the shop owner cried for people's help who rushed there and caught him. Four other notes of Tk 100 denomination were also recovered from him. The mob beat up him and handed over to police.

4 RU JCD leaders hurt
in clash

ARU CORRESPONDENT

Four Jatiyatabadi Chhatra Dal (JCD) leaders were injured when rival factions clashed and blasted cocktails over distribution of iftar at Bangabandhu Hall at Rajshahi University Monday evening.

The injured are RU JCD Joint Organising Secretary Masudur Rahman Rana, Education and Publication Secretary Mahfuzur Rahman and members Kabir Hossain and Ripon member.

The rooms of the hall provost and the JCD leader Mahfuz were also ransacked during the clashes and chase that continued several hours.

The iftar mahfil was organised on the occasion of the National Revolution and Solidarity Day, police said.

Death of stone quarry labourer: 5 held

STAFF CORRESPONDENT, Sylhet

Police have arrested five persons in connection with the killing of a labourer at Bholaganj stone quarry in Companyganj upazila.

They are Abul Kalam and his brother Abdus Salam, Al Amin, Abdul Ali and Manjil Miah, all from Biswambharpur upazila.

They were produced in court on Sunday, which sent them to jail hajat.

32 SUST teachers to lose jobsAll overstaying abroad badly affecting academic activities

IQBAL SIDDIQUEE, Sylhet

Thirty-two teachers of Shahjalal University of Science & Technology (SUST) will lose their jobs soon for unauthorised absence for long.

Among them, 10 have been served with termination letters.

Five others have been given letters as they voluntarily sought to be relieved from jobs.

Seven teachers were given 'final notice' asking them to join within a week and ten others were given 'notice' to join within a month.

Four teachers were asked to submit their MS certificate and proof of admission to Ph D courses. Otherwise, they would lose their jobs.

Sources said the SUST Syndicate took the decisions at its 106th meeting held on October 28 as the teachers concerned failed to join their duties long after expiry of their study leave while academic activities suffered badly.

All the teachers went abroad and are there for long without approval from the authorities.

The varsity had been suffering due to shortage of teachers.

Earlier, a four-member committee headed by Prof Habibul Ahsan was formed to suggest steps against the teachers. Other members of the committee were Prof Muhammad Jafar Iqbal, Prof Reza-e-Karim Khondaker and Registrar Jamil Ahmed Chowdhury.

The ten teachers already served with termination letters include Lecturer Aklima Ahmed Talukder of the Computer Science and Engineering, Assistant Professor Dr Md Mushfiqur Rahman and Lecturer Md Sarwar of Chemical Engineering and Polymer Science, Assistant Professor Shahin Ahmed of Industrial and Production Engineering, Assistant Professor Dr Afroza Shelly and Associate Professor Dr Ehsan Ahmed of Physics and Md Shahjalal Sarker of Statistics.

The five teachers who voluntarily sought to be relieved from jobs are Lecturer Saiful Afas Al Mahmud of Computer Science and Engineering, Lecturer SM Rokuzzaman and Lecturer Quazi Ashraful Haque of Chemical Engineering and Polymer Science, Assistant Professor Dr. Md.

Abdus Salam Biswas and Lecturer Salma Shirin of Chemistry.

The seven who were given 'final notice' to join within a week are Assistant Professor Didarul Alam Majumder of Computer Science and Engineering, Assistant Professor Masum Ahmed Jaigirder and Lecturer Shaila Nazmunnahar of Civil and Environmental Engineering, Assistant Professor Md. Humayun Kabir and Assistant Professor Raoshan Ara Begum of Chemistry.

The ten who were given 'final notice' to join within a month include Asstt Prof Dr SM Humayun Kabir, Asstt Prof Dr Md Mizanur Rahman, Asstt Prof Nazrul Islam, Asstt Prof Abdus Sobhan, Asstt Prof Md. Mujibur Rahman and Lecturer Rajik Al Imam of Chemistry, Asstt Prof Ziaul Haque and Asstt Professor Md. Ashraf Uddin of Mathematics, Asstt Prof Humayun Kabir and Asstt Professor Nazmul Islam of Political Studies and Public Administration.

The sources said that as per the Syndicate decision, the teachers failing to join duty within the stipulated periods will lose their jobs.

Road mishaps kill 7 in Sylhet, Chittagong

STAR NATIONAL DESK

Seven persons were killed in road accidents in Sylhet and Chittagong on Tuesday.

Our staff correspondent reported from Sylhet that five persons were killed when a trailer of a construction company fell on an autorickshaw on Sylhet-Tamabil Road Tuesday evening.

The mishap took place near the Asampara Asrayan Project under Jaintapurupazila.

The trailer was on its way to Jafflong from Sylhet. The autorickshaw was going to Jaintapur from Jafflong.

All the five died on the spot. Three of them have been identified. They are Tapash Shaha, 35, manager of a coal import firm in Jafflong; Misbahuddin, 35 of Khagra village in Gowainghat upazila and autorickshaw driver Saiful Islam, 30, hailing from Kalmakanda in Netrokona district. The rest two were shoe traders but could not be identified.

Police arrested the trailer driver Ibrahim.

The bodies were sent to the Sylhet MAG Osmani Medical College Hospital morgue.

Our Staff Correspondent reported from Chittagong that two persons were killed and at least seven injured in an on-head collision between a bus and a truck at Mirer Sarai Tuesday afternoon.

Police and witnesses said, two persons died on the spot when the Chittagong-bound bus of Shahi Paribahan from Laxmipur collided head on with the truck on the Dhaka-Chittagong highway.

Identity of the dead and the injured could not be known.

The truck managed to flee.

16 top AL leaders sued

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Bandarban

A defamatory case was filed on Tuesday with the first class magistrate's court of the district accusing 16 top leaders of the opposition Awami League (AL).

Of the leaders, names of Abdus Samad Azad and Abdur Razzak are also included.

The case was filed because of publishing the name of BNP leader Gias Uddin Quader Chowdhury in the godfathers' list by the AL recently.

Ilias Shah, a lawyer of district court filed the case under the penal code 500 and 501.

First class magistrate Ranajit Kumar accepted the case and directed the accused persons to appear before the court on December 9.

Maymaching, president of Bandarban district BNP and local leaders of four-party alliance were present at the court during filing the case.

Dur-re Rahman's
death condoled

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Moulvibazar

The teachers and students of Rajnagar Degree College here have condoled the death of Begum Dur-re Samad Rahman, wife of Finance and Planning Minister M Saiful Rahman MP, and mother of M Naser Rahman MP.

A condolence meeting was held at the college auditorium on November 3 with Principal Md Quresh Khan in the chair.

While discussing the life and works of the deceased, they recalled various human aspects of her characteristics.

Vice Principal Professor Jilal Uddin, Professor Md Abdul Gafur, Professor Rajat Kanti Goswami, Professor Debotosh Chowdhury, Professor Ramananda Debnath and Professor AKM Emadul Hoque spoke.

Shahabuddin Chowdhury, Poly Begum and Shakir Uddin addressed on behalf of the students.

The eldest son of the deceased M Naser Rahman, MP, happens to be the chairman of the governing body of the college.

Fire kills minor girl in Khulna

STAFF CORRESPONDENT, Khulna

A three-year old girl was killed and an old man injured in a big fire in the Ashrak project area at Goabairchar under Rupsha upazila on Sunday night.

Seven kutchha and semi-pucca houses were gutted by the fire which originated from the oven of BRAC employee named Sirajul Fakir.

The dead identified as Mayuri is the only daughter of Sirajul Fakir while injured Intaz Ali, 70, is his father.

Hili C & F
agents call off strike

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Nilphamari

The C & F Agents Association at Hili land port in Dinajpur has called off its indefinite strike.

The decision was taken after Women and Children Affairs Minister Khurshid Jahan Haq at a meeting on Tuesday assured the association leaders that their demands would be considered, sources said.

Rajshahi Divisional Commissioner Mia Mustaq Ahmed was also present at the meeting, held at the VIP lounge at Saidpur airport.

The C & F agents went on strike on November 5 protesting what they called harassment of some of their colleagues by BDR personnel at the port customs. The strike brought import-export to a standstill.

They are also demanding withdrawal of BDR personnel responsible for the harassment and end to harassment of truck drivers carrying export-import goods.

On November 5, some BDR personnel searched some trucks carrying Indian goods. The C & F Agents Association later alleged that some of its members were harassed during the search.

Moulvibazar tops
Zakat Fund
contributors

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Moulvibazar

Moulvibazar district tops the list for contributing the highest amount of money in Zakat Fund of the government.

This was disclosed at a meeting held at the conference room of the Deputy Commissioner (DC), Moulvibazar recently.

Presided over by Motiur Rahman, Additional District Magistrate, Moulvibazar, the meeting was attended, among others, by Md Mukhlesur Rahman, Deputy Commissioner, Abu Hena Mostafa Kamal, Deputy Director of the Islamic Foundation and Abdul Mannan, Upazila Nirbahi Officer (UNO) of Kulaura upazila.

Moulvibazar district had contributed Tk One lakh and 15,000 to the Zakat Fund last year, this was informed at the meeting.

This year the target was fixed at Tk 2 lakh.

RAKUB confce

'Give loans to charland
farmers'

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Gaibandha

A branch managers' conference of Rajshahi Krishi Unnayan Bank, Gaibandha region, was held at its regional office here on Tuesday.

Twenty-three branch managers from different areas of Gaibandha district took part in the conference. Rajshahi Krishi Unnayan Bank Chairman Ruhul Kabir Rezvi and its Managing Director Dr Mujibur Rahman Khan were present as chief guest and special guest. The conference was presided over by Regional Manager Altaf Hossain.

Speaking on the occasion, the chairman ordered branch managers to give special attention to monga-stricken areas while giving loan to farmers in the ensuring Rabi season.

He also suggested disbursement of agriculture credit to farmers in Char lands after conducting a survey.

Two ship-breaking yard staff mugged
in Chittagong

STAFF CORRESPONDENT, Ctg

Armed muggers looted cash and pay order money amounting to 25 lakh from two staffers of a ship-breaking yard at Sitakunda on Monday night. Police said, accountant Abul Kalam Bhuiyan and another staffer of a ship-breaking yard were carrying Tk 6 lakh in cash and Tk 19 lakh in pay order to their city office from the yard in Kadamrasu area under Sitakunda thana.

As soon as they reached near Kalu Shah Mazar, three armed muggers on board a taxi-cab intercepted their 4-stroke baby taxi at around 8.30 p.m. They looted the money at gun point and fled away on board the same taxi-cab.

Later police held one person named Azam, 35. A case was also filed.

1,100 bottles of Phensidyl recovered

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Chuadanga

About 1,100 bottles of Indian Phensidyl was seized from Darsana railway station on Sunday. Bangladesh Rifles (BDR) seized the smuggled Phensidyl bottles which were being carried by a van in five sacks. Smugglers were taking the contrabands to Damurhuda

Rajshahi BNP leader murder

Partymen divided on who is to blame

STAFF CORRESPONDENT, Rajshahi

BNP secretary Shafiqul Haque Milon also addressed the meeting.

Speakers at the meeting claimed that WP Politbureau member Fazle Hossain Badsha 'controls' underground political activists in the region and demanded his arrest to find clue to the murder.

Badsha and the city unit of WP in separate press statements said the government failed to maintain law and order but the ruling party leaders were blaming opposition parties for this.

Meanwhile, police arrested Khwaja Md Abdul Majid, a central leader of WP and Rajshahi district president of Bangladesh Krishak Samity and five of his family members in connection with the murder of Abdul Hamid.

Abdul Majid is chairman of Jhikra Union Council.

In the case filed in connection with Hamid's murder, it has been alleged that Abdul Majid is the Rajshahi 'regional leader' of Purbo Banglar Communist Party.

The five others arrested are Andul Majid's nephews Zahangir Alam Boltu and Rashed Kabir, cousins Zillur Rahman and Mohajar Ali Sardar and Jhikra Union Council member Shukur Ali.

Unidentified persons claiming themselves as members of PBCP through telephones calls at different press clubs in the city claimed responsibility for Abdul Hamid's murder.

Jubo Dal
activists loot
shrimp

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Satkhira

Activists of Jatiyatabadi Jubo Dal, youth front of the ruling BNP were forced to leave a shrimp enclosure at Debbata which they allegedly occupied on Sunday.

The shrimp enclosure was owned by Bimal Kumar Mondal of Kalishatunia in Debbata upazila.

However, they 'looted' shrimp worth Tk one lakh from there.

A group led by Satkhira district Jubo Dal leader Abdul Kader attacked the staff of the enclosure. They forced them to leave the enclosure at gun point.

Bimal filed a case with Debbata on the same night. Police rushed to the spot at about 2:30 am, chased the miscreants away.

Police took control of the enclosure. An arbitration meeting was held on Monday at the office of the Assistant Police Super (ASP), Kaligonj circle but in vain. Police have been patrolling the shrimp enclosure area.

