

Two killed in city

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

A youth was killed and the body of a teenaged boy was recovered in the city on Sunday.

Unidentified assailants gunned down the youth at Kawla near the Zia International Airport.

A gang of four called Mohiuddin Badal, 32, an electrician, out of his Aashkona residence on Saturday night and his bloodstained body was found by the locals near a graveyard at Kawla next morning.

On information, Airport police recovered the body and sent it to Dhaka Medical College Hospital (DMCH) morgue for autopsy.

Victim's wife Moriam identified the body at the hospital morgue.

Meanwhile, Ramna police recovered the body of a teenaged boy, 14, from the top of an over-head water reservoir.

Police said there were marks of injuries in the head while both hands were tied up with rope.

They suspected that he might have been killed two days ago.

The body was sent to DMCH morgue for autopsy.

Chairman of the National Committee of the Chinese People's Political Consultative Conference Jia Qinglin paid a courtesy call on President Iajuddin Ahmed at the Bangabhaban yesterday.

President for expansion of trade ties with China

UNB, Dhaka

President Iajuddin Ahmed said Bangladesh and China could diversify their trade links for the mutual benefit of the two peoples.

He said this when the visiting Chairman of the National Committee of the Chinese People's Political Consultative Conference (CPPCC) Jia Qinglin paid a courtesy call on him at the Bangabhaban yesterday.

Welcoming the Chinese leader, the president hoped that his official visit to Bangladesh would have a positive impact on further strengthening and deepening of the excellent bilateral relations and close cooperation between Bangladesh and China.

Stressing educational cooperation and exchange of cultural delegations, he said people-to-people contact would help know each other better.

"China is a tested friend and development partner of Bangladesh," the president said, appreciating Chinese assistance for the development of Bangladesh.

He also reiterated Bangladesh's support for 'One China Policy' and appreciated China's efforts for peace in the world. He also appreciated successful completion of the mission of first Chinese manned spacecraft.

Referring to excellent bilateral relations, the visiting CPPCC chairman said there is further scope of developing trade and cultural relations.

He appreciated Bangladesh's socio-economic development over the years, saying that China would continue to cooperate with its development efforts.

Describing Bangladesh as a good friend of China, he hoped that the existing China-Bangladesh relations would be further developed and diversified in future.

Members of the Chinese delegation, high officials of the Bangabhaban and the Foreign Ministry and the Chinese ambassador in Dhaka were also present.
