Senior Local Governance & Capacity Building Specialist
International Project seeks a Specialist to oversee and help provide a framework for formalized collaboration of key local and national stakeholders with the Government in the conservation of protected forest areas (PAs). Under the supervision of the Chief-of-Party, the Local Governance & Capacity Building (LGCB) Specialist will:
- Assist in development and refinement of an approach to collaborative management of the country's protected areas;
- Work with field-level implementing NGOs and Government partners to test this approach at pilot sites;
- Identify and write about lessons learned from pilot applications of the approach;
- Work with field-level implementing partners to ensure consistency in use of analytical tools such as RRA, PRA, and ecological monitoring;
- Identify capacity-building needs of local stakeholders, including Government stakeholders, for the sustained use of collaborative management approaches;
- Plan and conduct training courses on collaborative management;
- Complete a long-term exit strategy to ensure that technical inputs of the Project are capitalized upon by the key co-management stakeholders.
Qualifications for this senior level position include: 15 years working experience in administering and supporting the economic/social environmental development of the rural poor; proven ability to provide intellectual leadership and analysis of the development process and local governance processes; a minimum of Master's degree in a relevant field; experience conducting capacity-building assessments and training; excellent written and oral communication in English and Bangla; experience with RRA and PRA; and, computer skills including MS Word. Women are particularly encouraged to apply. The position is based in Dhaka with regular travel to field sites. The position will be initially set for one year, but would be extended upon exemplary performance, to contract end in 2008. Salary for this position shall be in line with the established policy of the project.
Interested persons are requested to apply with Curriculum Vitae and Cover Letter by 25th January 2004. The Cover Letter must answer, in no more than 250 words, why she or he is the right candidate for this job. Applications should be sent to: IRG, Hs 68, Rd 1, Block I, Banani, Dhaka-1212.
