'Unite against misrule of government'

CU CORRESPONDENT

Speakers at a conference yesterday urged the people to unite against the misrule of the alliance government.

They said unity of the members of the civil society is a must to free the country from crimes.

The speakers said everybody should come forward to form a united movement to achieve the goal.

They also said unity of non-government organisations and the general people can help establish good governance.

The conference was organised by Oikyabaddha Nagorik Andolon (ONA), a platform of the civil society, at Muslim Hall in the port city.

Veteran revolutionary Binod Bihari Chowdhury, a close aide of Masterda Surya Sen, formally inaugurated the conference.

ONA Secretary General Dr Kazi Faruk Ahmed attended the conference as chief guest.
