

One shot dead in Chittagong

STAFF CORRESPONDENT, Ctg

A gang of robbers shot one dead and injured two others at Chandanaiash upazila in the district in the early hours of yesterday.

Badal Shil, 55, son of Sukanta Shil of Hayeedgaon under Patiya upazila, became the victim of the attack while visiting the house of his sister Pakhi Bala.

Police and witnesses said some fifteen armed robbers attacked the house of Pakhi Bala at Madhyam Hashimpur of Chandanaiash at around 1:00am.

They decamped with the booty while firing at the chasing mob that left Badal and two others bullet-hit.

Badal succumbed to his injury at Chittagong Medical College Hospital at around 5.30am.

A case was filed in this connection.

Eyes of criminal gouged out in Narayanganj

OUR CORRESPONDENT, N'ganj

A group of hoodlums gouged out eyes of a person after kidnapping him from the Bandar area on Saturday.

The victim was identified as Shamim, 28.

Police recovered him from Kanchpur bridge area in a critical condition in the same evening.

Police informed the journalists that Shamim is a notorious criminal of Bandar area and a member of Kamu group.

The gangsters of another group led by Surot Ali gouged out his eyes, police added.

BCU founding anniversary today

UNB, Dhaka

The 52nd founding anniversary of Bangladesh Chhatra Union (BCU) will be observed today.

To mark the day, Chhatra Union will bring out a rally on the Dhaka University campus in the morning and organise a reunion at the DUCSU cafeteria at 5.00pm.

The student organisation played an important role in the country's different movements, including the 1969 mass upsurge, the war of liberation in 1971 and anti-autocratic movement in 1990.