Oust-govt agitation to continue: Hasina

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Gopalganj Rather, they have created a reign of terror through crimes, murders and widespread corruption, she said at a rally at Tungipara. The AL chief said the BNP had called hartal on 382 days during the tenure of her government but now they are criticising the AL for calling hartal. Although the government has arrested opposition leaders and workers in a huge number to stifle the opposition voice, the agitation would continue, she said. Sheikh Hasina said the law and order situation has worsened so alarmingly that the foreign investors now feel discouraged to invest in the country. She said the government seized a huge rans haul in Chittagong recently but they did not take any action against those responsible for the arms smuggling. Hasina said Bangabandhu Sheikh Mujibur Rahman has recently been adjudged the greatest among the 20 Bengalees of all times in an opinion poll conducted by the BBC. "It is the victory of the people of Bangladesh."

'Launch drive to recover arms from indigenous youths in CHT'

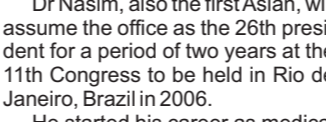

STAFF CORRESPONDENT Speakers at a roundtable yesterday called for a special drive by joint forces to recover arms from the indigenous youths in Chittagong Hill Tracts (CHT). They said the Bangalee settlers are becoming the victims of kidnapping and ransom by armed indigenous youths. Sama Odhiker Andolon, a platform of Bangalee settlers in three hill districts, organised the roundtable at the National Press Club to discuss their problems. "I will request the government to launch an army or joint forces drive in the CHT to seize illegal arms from tribal youths," said Abdul Wadud Bhuiyan, a lawmaker of Khagrachhari, while speaking as chief guest at the roundtable. Bhuiyan, also the chairman of the CHT Development Board, said number of illegal arms has been increasing alarmingly in the area. Terming the CHT accord as a 'black deal', he demanded equal facilities for both the Bangalee settlers and indigenous people as they are living under same condition. The speakers said the cancellation of the treaty was an election-pledge of the ruling alliance government led by BNP. But the government is now assuring the indigenous people that they would implement it, the speakers added. BNP leader Moshui Alam Humayun from Rangamati, Abu Yusuf Chowdhury from Khagrachhari and Ruhul Amin, chairman of Kaokhali Pourosova also spoke on the occasion. Representatives of Bangalee settlers from different parts of three hill districts including Monirul Haq Chowdhury, a lawmaker from Comilla, were present at the roundtable.

3 DU students held for teasing female student

DU CORRESPONDENT Ramna police arrested three students for allegedly teasing a female student on the Dhaka University campus on Monday afternoon. The students are Tarek Billah, a second year student of Islamic history, Kazi Habibur Rahman, a first year student of the same department, and Sabuj Kumar Biswas, a second year student of philosophy. However, they were released in the early hours of yesterday after they signed a promise not to commit such offence in future. Sources said the three claiming themselves as activists of Jatityabadi Chhatra Dal (JCD) teased a female student who was sitting at Battola near the Arts building with her boyfriend. They asked her whether she was a DU student and wanted to see her identity card. They also misbehaved with her as she declined to show the identity card, sources added. However, police along with some JCD leaders soon appeared on the scene and arrested the three after the female student called a former Dhaka University Central Students Union leader, who is a relative of her and also a BNP leader, over her cell phone.
