

New principal prevented from joining Eden College

DU CORRESPONDENT

Newly appointed principal of Eden College could not join her new office yesterday.

Prof. Feroza Begum, principal of Bangla College, who has been transferred to Eden College as its principal, could not join her new college as the students kept her under lock and key at the office at Bangla College.

The students do not want the principal to leave the college, said an official over telephone yesterday.

Prof. Tahmina Hossain, who was the vice-principal of Eden College, was made head of the Bangla department at Badrunnesa College. She also could not join her new college as the Eden College JCD leaders kept her confined to the office room of the college.

The JCD leaders also did not welcome the new vice-principal who came from Dhaka Music College. Though the new vice-principal stayed at the principal's office at Eden College more than three hours yesterday, she could not take over.

Meanwhile, Prof. Dilara Hafiz, who was the principal of Eden College, took over as the chairman of National Curriculum and Textbook Board (NCTB) yesterday.

The education ministry recently transferred 34 teachers of different colleges in the city. Among them, six teachers, including principal and vice-principal, are from the Eden College.

Robbery attempt foiled: One shot

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

A cashier of a motor parts shop was shot when police fired gunshots at robbers at Abdullahpur in the city yesterday.

Bullet-hit cashier Abdul Aziz, 25, was rushed to Dhaka Medical College Hospital (DMCH) and released after first aid, hospital sources said.

Four armed miscreants riding two motorbikes tried to stop the microbus of Shahidullah, manager of Asian Petrol Pump, when he was going to Mercantile bank at Abdullahpur to deposit Tk 5.5 lakh at about 12:10pm.

Uttara police patrol team led by sub-inspector Rawshan Ali chased the gang. At one-stage they fired gunshots at the gang members but a bullet missed its target and hit the throat of Abdul Aziz, cashier of Anwara motors. Aziz was reading a newspaper in front of his shop.

The gang members fled through Jasimuddin Road.

The officer-in-charge of Uttara Police Station questioned the manager of the petrol pump.
