REUTERS/AFP, New Delhi

India and Pakistan will play eight home-and-away hockey Tests later this year after a five-year freeze following political tensions between the neighbouring nations.

The series will commence in Karachi on September 25 and will be followed by matches in Quetta on September 27, Peshawar on September 29 and Lahore on October 1.

The series will follow a similar tour by Pakistan to India, where they will play in New Delhi on October 4, in the northern city of Chandigarh on October 6 and the southern cities of Hyderabad and Bangalore on October 8 and October 10 respectively.

India and Pakistan have met each other in a number of tournaments but not played a series since 1999.

Hockey is the second most popular game after cricket in both countries. India have won eight Olympic titles and Pakistan three.

the 70th minute and completed the treble three minutes from time.

Abahani, who drew their league opener against BCIC, dominated the show with as many as five national booters for their first win.

In the earlier encounter, City Corporation Ekadash beat BCIC 1-0 at the same venue, Tipu netted the game's only goal in the 73rd minute.

McEnroe for 'superset'

REUTERS, London

Some of the biggest names in tennis will clash in a one-set challenge for 250,000 pounds ($452,700) later this year in a razzamatazz makeover for the sport.

The Superset Tennis event will pit one of the biggest names from the 1980s, John McEnroe, against fellow former Wimbledon champion Goran Ivanisevic and current top-10 player Tim Henman.

McEnroe, three times a Wimbledon champion and four-times U.S. Open winner, believes the format will put him on a level playing field with the sport's current crop.

"I can give anyone on the men's tour a run for his money for a set or two," he said.

The contest -- on October 3 at Wembley Arena -- will be played over two sessions, an afternoon session "Superset Elim8" and a night session "Superset Final4".

Agassi may skip Wimbledon

AFP, Los Angeles

Andre Agassi has reportedly decided to miss Wimbledon which starts next week for the first time since 1997 because of a lingering hip problem.

His management agency told The Los Angeles Times his next tournament would be the Mercedes-Benz Cup in Los Angeles which starts July 12.

A Wimbledon spokesman said the organisers had not been notified of his decision.

Wimbledon, which starts Monday, has already lost the top two women players, Belgians Justine Henin-Hardenne because of a virus and Kim Clijsters with a left wrist injury.

Gustavo Kuerten of Brazil and French Open champion Gaston Gaudio of Argentina pulled out last week because of injuries, although neither had been expected to make a big impact on grass.
