probing the cases stated in the charge sheet, "Awami League (AL) high-ups smuggled in the ammunition to destabilise the country."

But the charge sheet did not specify the AL leaders who brought the ammunition and from where and how they brought that. Lack of clarity in the charge sheet will go in favour of the accused, the sources said.

Before the investigation began, the prime minister, the then home minister and the inspector general of police also accused the AL of smuggling in the ammunition to with suspected ties to militant operatives.

They are also watching some Islamic non-governmental organisations (NGOs) believed to be spending on secret militant training hefty funds that they bring in from the Middle Eastern countries in the name of building mosques, madrasas and welfare bodies.

'Pichchi' Hannan nabbed hurt in Savar clinic

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

The Rapid Action Battalion (Rab) yesterday arrested 'Pichchi' Hannan, one of top 23 criminals on the police list who and four others shot their way through police drag-net in Uttara early Friday, at a private hospital in Sreepur, Savar.

"We've arrested him and he is now at the Rab headquarters," Anwarul Iqbal, director general of Rab, told The Daily Star last night. The home ministry announced a Tk 1 lakh reward on him for arrest or information leading to his capture.

Tipped off that Hannan took admission at Insaif General Hospital in Sreepur, a Rab team raided the hospital at around 7.00pm. The top criminal, who has been dodging arrest for two and a half years, took admission at the hospital yesterday afternoon, hospital sources said.

Son of Wazi Ullah of Santoshpur village of Faridganj Upazila in Chandpur, Hannan stands accused in as many as 23 cases filed with Tejgaon, Mirpur, Uttara and Mohommadpur police stations, police said quoting primary statistics immediately after his arrest.

On Thursday night, a 40-member team of the elite anti-crime unit hemmed in house No.2 on Khwaja Garib-e-Newaz Avenue in Uttara Sector 11 at around 12.30am on Friday on information that Hannan and four other top criminals were holding a secret meeting there.

As they knocked on the door, the criminals opened it and fired on the law enforcers at the first sight, sending the members of the elite anticrime force to duck for shelter. The criminals engaged in a fierce fire fight and traded at least 150 shots with the Rab team before dashing into a car parked in front of the house and speeding away, leaving two law enforcers and one criminal wounded.

Hannan took bullets in the abdomen and had been at different clinics in the city, but stayed at none of them overnight fearing arrest. Rab

Tax list of top 100 professionals sent to JS body

REJAUL KARIM BYRON

For the first time, the National Board of Revenue (NBR) yesterday submitted to a parliamentary body a document listing the country's top 100 tax paying lawyers, doctors, engineers and architects, chartered accountants, contractors, real estate developers and buying house businessmen.

The petition, moved by his counsel Tanya Amir, says the charge was brought against him grossly abusing Section 124A of Bangladesh Penal Code and the section was inconsistent with the constitution and its basic structure.

The petition says there is no anti-state element in the sedition case.

list in compliance to the directive of a meeting of the parliamentary standing committee on finance ministry in March last. In that meeting, the Jatiya Sangsad (JS) body observed that the country's top tax collection does not reflect the economic growth of certain social segments.

The committee maintained that a large rich class of professionals, outside the private sector organisations, has burgeoned in the country in recent years, which should be brought into the large taxpayers' net.

JUDGE'S WRIT Lawyers for full hearing

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

Lawyers yesterday appealed to the high court to order a full hearing of the writ petition filed by Second Speedy Tribunal Judge Shaikh Jahangir Husain against pressure and interference in his activities by public prosecutors.

The petition demands interpretation of several articles of the constitution, the lawyers argued when a High Court Division Bench of justices Mohammad Joynul Abedin and Sharif Uddin Chakladar began hearing the petition.

Jahangir in his petition alleged the government through two public prosecutors put pressure on him to release some notorious criminals ahead of Dhaka-10 by polls that

HASIBUR RAHMAN BILU, Bogra

"The charges against the arrested will be proved," hoped Anisur Rahman, public prosecutor (PP) of the case. Assistant PP also expressed similar views.

Police sources seeking anonymity said the assistant superintendent of police (ASP) of Criminal Investigation Department (CID)

Islamic militant groups have set up a host of arms training camps in unprotected, isolated hilly forests in Chittagong far beyond the watch of police and forest officials, locals say.

The concern came to a head after the police discovered two camps in Hathazari and Rangunia upazillas on June 1 apparently by chance. They believe clandestine militant activities go on under cover of outlying villages, but could not confirm how many camps have sprouted up.

Intelligence agencies mounted a sharp watch on some 20 km² madrasas (religious schools that follow an old curriculum) and local leaders of Islamist organisations
