Tk 1cr earned from seized timbers, vehicles in Ctg

STAFF CORRESPONDENT, Ctg

In its anti-smuggling drive, the Town Range of Chittagong South Forest Division (CSFD) earned TK 1 crore from the auction of seized timbers and vehicles used in smuggling in last fiscal year, said a press release here yesterday.

During the period, the patrol teams of CSDF carried out drives independently or jointly with Rangunia and Patiya Forest Ranges on Cox's Bazar-Chittagong and Kaptai-Chittagong roads including Karnaphuliriverroute.

They seized 16,827.06 cft of illegal teak and other valuable timbers, 3937.09cft of firewood, 11992 cft of bolli (log used as pillars) and around one lakh bamboos. They also seized 42 vehicles including trucks and engine boats used in timber trafficking.

Besides, the authority confiscated electric devices and sealed

More bodies protest distortion of history

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

Different organisations have continued to slate the government for distorting the country's history by naming former president Ziaur Rahman as the first proclaimer of independence in the reprint of Swadhinota Juddher Dalilpatro, the official history of Bangladesh's Liberation War.

Liberation Affairs Secretary of the Awami League Capt (retd) A B Tajul Islam said the alliance government has tarnished the image of the country by distorting a historic fact.

In a statement, he said the people fought the liberation war after its proclamation by Bangabandhu Sheikh Mujibur Rahman.

Tajul said the vested quarter, now engaged in a conspiracy to distort the country's liberation war, will be thrown into the dustbin of history.

Leaders of Muktijuddher Smriti Sangrakkhan Kendra have said the BNP-Jamaat government had been involved in distorting the history of the liberation war since it came to

In a statement, they said Bangabandhu Sheikh Mujibur Rahman first proclaimed the independence of the country on March 26, and this was published in different newspapers around

The signatories to the statement included Professor Kabir Chowdhury, Barrister Shawkat Ali Khan, Advocate Gaziul Haq, Tagore song exponent Kalim Sharafi, Major General (retd) C R Dutta, Poet Shamsur Rahman, Professor B K Jahangir, Litterateur Shahriar Kabir, Professor Hasan Azizul Haq and Professor Anupom Sen Jatiya Samajtantrik Dal has termed the move as denying the facts of country's liberation war.

In a statement, the JSD said it was a hidden agenda of the BNP-Jamaat alliance government.

Workers Party of Bangladesh has said there is no historical basis of the first proclamation of independence by Ziaur Rhaman.

"History of the country cannot be changed with the change of the government," said a statement of Sammilito Sangskritik Jote, Muktijoddha Foundation, Dhaka University Teachers' Association, Sammilito Nagorik Samaj, Bangabandhu Sramik League and Bangladesh Chhatra League also issued separate statements condemning the move.
