Saudi govt sends relief for flood victims

UNB, Dhaka

Saudi government has sent 75 metric tons of relief materials for flood-affected people in Bangladesh. Saudi Ambassador Abdullah Mohammad Al-Obaid-Al Namia formally handed over the relief materials to Food and Disaster Management Secretary Siddique Rahman Chowdhury at Zia International Airport yesterday. A special aircraft carried the relief materials to Dhaka.

The relief included 6,525 kg of medicine, 600 portable tents, 600 blankets, 3,200 carpets and 1,000 kgs of food items.

Speaking on the occasion, the envoy said the Saudi government is aware about the widespread damage caused by flooding in Bangladesh every year. More relief materials would be sent for the flood-hit people, he added.

IRREGULARITIES AT NU BCM to submit memo to edn minister

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

Bangladesh Chhatra Moitri (BCM), a left-leaning student organisation, will lay a siege to the education ministry and submit a memorandum to the education minister on September 16 to protest irregularities at the National University (NU).

It will also form human chains at district level colleges across the country on August 14 and collect signatures in support of their demand.

Addressing a press conference in the city yesterday, Chhatra Moitri leaders said the NU has been beset with corruption and irregularities.

They said the students are subjected to harassment as the authorities are indifferent to their duties.

They also alleged that the academic activities of the students are being hampered due to shortage of classrooms and teachers.
