BDB relief seized

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

Gulshan police yesterday seized relief materials from Bikalpa Dhara Bangladesh (BDB) activists along with their vehicles for using loud speaker in the diplomatic zone.

Duty Officer Habibur Rahman, however, denied the allegation and told The Daily Star that "We only asked them to seek permission before using the loud speaker."

Mahi B Chowdhury, a lawmaker and BDB spokesman, rushed to the police station to recover the relief materials.

The government is not providing adequate relief to the flood victims, he said adding that it is also barring other political parties from serving the distressed humanity.

BDB leaders and activists collected the relief materials from the residents of Banani, Gulshan and Baridhara area, said a BDB press release.
