STAFF CORRESPONDENT

A weeklong art exhibition began in the city yesterday in aid of the flood victims.

Organised by Society for Promotion of Bangladesh Art, the exhibition displays the works of 73 artists including paintings by SM Sultan, Mohammad Kibria and Quamrul Hassan.

Foreign Minister M Morshed Khan inaugurated the exhibition at Saju Art Gallery.

He said he hopes to arrange exhibitions of Bangladeshi artists in Australia, North America and Europe in the near future.

Morshed Khan praised Saju Art Gallery for being a pioneer in art collection in Bangladesh since the 70s.

He said Saju was driven by the sentiments of the artists, rather than the business.

Elham Kabir, chairman of the Society for Promotion of Bangladesh Art, said his society started its work 18 months back to promote Bangladeshi art in the world outside.

He said the first project of the society was to bring out a book on Bangladeshi art for the nation.

Kabir said there are 91 works including some paintings donated by private art collectors on display in the exhibition.
